U.S., British Troops Battle To Subdue Mobs in Trieste

WINTER ARRIVES WITH A BANG. The first snow of the season swept across much of the nation Thursday and caught most cities by surprise The auto accident in the upper photo occurred in Denver where a spatter of rain later turned into a snowfall that measured two inches Slick streets and poor visibility caused this mishap when a car (right) driven by Mrs. Nora M Kenney 34 crashed into three parked autos pushing one of the vehicles up on the sidewalk and turning it over. The lower photo shows streets of Port Huron Mich., clogged by 8 to 12 inches of snow.

Chief of POW Commission Warns Reds

Speed Up Interviews, Gen. Thimayya Says; Officers Held Hostage

PANMUNJOM (AP) — The Indian chief of the war prisoner commission today indirectly—but pointedly—warned the Communists to speed up their dragging interviews with anti-Red POWs or 'I may have to throw up my hands'

The warning by Lt Gen K S Thimayya came as the Reds appeared ready to call the whole program quits

Thimayya indicated he might use Indian troops to conduct the interviews if the present tottering procedure breaks down

Interviews Called Off

He spoke only a few hours after a last-minute Communist demand resulted in cancellation of the day's scheduled explanations

Thimayya held a news conference just after returning from the camp holding 22 Americans and 1 Briton who have not returned home

He said the 23 held two Indian officers prisoner 4 hours and 15 minutes to compel the commission to visit them and hear complaints

The Allied POWs handed Thimayya a long, typewritten protest against what was termed "violations by the U N Command and the custodian force India"

The petition denounced delivery of mail newspapers and magazines from the United States which the POWs reportedly consider counter propaganda to intimidate slander coerce and bribe,' them to come home

Signed by American

The protests were signed by an American who appeared to have signed his name Richard Cordon a British prisoner Andrew M. Condron and a South Korean, Kim Man Su

First Sgt Richard G Corden of East Providence R I is listed among American prisoners who the Reds say refused to come home

The main demand Thimayya said was that the NNRC "censor such mail' to filter out all material urging them to return

'I asked them what we should do in the case of a letter from a man's wife who writes Oh, darling please come home to me' and they seemed a little unclear on that point" said Thimayya

"We may work out some arrangement to read off the names and addresses and let them pick out the letters they want,' the general said

The prisoners complained they had received a lot of "stereotyped letters' from people they did not know.

POLICE BATTLE PRO-ITALIAN DEMONSTRATORS. A club-wielding policeman is about to strike a pro-Italian demonstrator during skirmish in the Free Territory of Trieste He wards off a blow by the demonstrator with his left arm Another riot policeman comes in to help The demonstrators, mostly students battled police for three hours with sticks and stones They also hurled paving blocks at several U S and British military vehicles.

Bayonets Aid Police Efforts To Stop Riots

Bitter Demonstrations Continue; Up to Nine Killed; Italians Roused

By WEBB McKINLEY

TRIESTE (AP) —Pro-Italian rioters and local police clashed again today in this disputed Adriatic port city Police gunfire killed four persons before American and British troops, moving into the riot area with fixed bayonets, restored order

A hand grenade tossed from a milling mob of 10 000 exploded in the midst of Trieste's British trained territorial police, wounding two of them gravely. Unconfirmed reports said one had died This would bring the toll in two days to seven dead and 28 to 30 injured Two were killed and 18 injured yesterday

First Call for U. S. Aid

It was the first time American troops had been called in to help quell the bitter demonstrations British and American forces which occupy this city, have previously been posted merely as guards around buildings where their personnel were working.

In addition to the violence here demonstrations flared in Rome and other Italian cities Resentment was expressed against the British and Americans A crowd in Rome surrounded the U S Embassy and shouted "assassins, assassins" Police broke up the crowd with tear gas and clubs and arrested scores

U S Ambassador Clare Boothe Luce conferred with Italian Premier Giuseppe Pella She returned to the embassy in time to see the demonstrators seize a fire truck and turn hoses on police and toss tear gas bombs back.

10,000 March in Milan

Ten thousand demonstrated in Milan and marched on the British consulate, but were turned back by police

Rome demonstrators smashed windows in the British embassy.

The British and Americans announced Oct 8 that they intended to turn over administration of Zone A of the Trieste territory, including the city to the Italians Yugoslavia declared its troops would march into Zone A the moment Italian military forces were sent in Tension over Trieste always a hot issue between Yugoslavia and Italy, heightened

Today's Trieste rioting involving an estimated 10 000 persons, was the worst of the three days in this city of predominantly Italian population

An uneasy calm was restored to the city around noon but British and American troops and police were on the alert for any new outbreaks

Trieste was tight in the grip of a general strike protesting yesterday's incidents

No trains or street cars moved Stores were shut tight after a tense night in which people of the city filed slowly to the bloodied site of yesterday's sudden shooting before the steps of St Anthony's Church There they dropped chrysanthemums Italy's funeral flower, until there were two mounds of the blossoms

In Rome and Milan thousands of students left classrooms and gathered in the streets to demonstrate Stones were hurled through the windows of Rome's Anglo-American Hotel

British Blamed

Italian newspapers bitterly blamed British Gen Sir John Winterton for the order to fire which turned the flag waving and later stone hurling demonstration yesterday in Trieste into a national crisis

The shooting was done by Trieste's territorial riot police consisting of Italians and Slavs British and American occupation troops mounted guard on hotels and public buildings but did not move against the rioters

Ohio Outlook in Doubt

Boys Under 19 Believed Safe From Calls in Draft

WASHINGTON (AP)—No need to draft men under 19 in most states is indicated before next July unless draft calls skyrocket, an Associated Press survey showed today. The minimum draft age is 18½

The survey of state selective service directors also found that a relative handful of men under 19 have been drafted since conscription was resumed shortly after the Korean War started in mid 1950 This does not count volunteers.

Need Falls Off

At least 13 states, New York City and the District of Columbia have drafted none or only a few men under 20 in recent months according to the survey Kentucky and Alabama haven't drafted any under 20 since World War II

An earlier survey showed that 41 states dipped into the 19-year-old group to fill last April's draft calls Since July the calls have dropped to 23 000 each month allowing a lot of these states to slip back into drafting only 20-year-olds

The big question before the state directors now is whether calls will jump considerably above 23 000 a month November and December calls have already been announced at that quota

May Boost Call

Defense Department officials have been considering raising the calls to about 37 000 a month starting in January Some defense officials say such a jump is unlikely because of military budget limitations although they don't discount the possibility of a smaller raise in the January to July calls

The January draft call will be announced in a few days

The calls will have to be much higher than 23 000 months after next June to replace draftees completing their two years of military duty Defense officials estimate calls of about 45 000 for each of the 12 months following next June

As long as draft calls remain at about the present level many state directors indicated they wouldn't have to draft men under 19 in the near future

Not the Case in Ohio

The only state directors who didn't indicate they were in this position were for Iowa Kentucky, Louisiana Ohio Rhode Island South Carolina Utah Washington Wisconsin and Wyoming

Directors for Rhode Island South Carolina Utah Washington and Wisconsin either wouldn't comment on when they would be taking men between 18½ and 19 or said it was impossible to make an estimate

The Iowa director said it would be about next April before he would be calling men below 19 The Louisiana director said it wouldn't be before next January Wyoming and Ohio directors said it would be at least several months while the Kentucky director said it would be next spring at least

The states which are now taking none or few under 20 are Alabama Arkansas Georgia Idaho Illinois Kansas Kentucky Maine Nebraska New Hampshire, New Mexico Pennsylvania and West Virginia

Seven County Residents Face Draft in December

Marion County's December draft call is seven men State Selective Service Director C W Goble announced today The state's draft call is for 1 087 youths

Registrants must be 20 years of age and born prior to Dec 1 1933 unless they are volunteers or draft delinquents, the announcement said The December call was only 21 greater than the number called in October, which was the lowest number called this year Largest number called was 2 291 in May

Draft calls for area counties included Crawford 8 Delaware 4 Hardin 4 Morrow 4 Union 4 and Wyandot 5

Guy Fawkes Night Brings Wild Riots In London Streets

LONDON (AP)—Thousands of celebrating students battled police for more than seven hours last night in one of the most riotous Guy Fawkes Nights this staid British capital has seen in many years

More than 120 persons faced police charges as an aftermath of the wild outburst in London's plush West End climaxed by a march of 10 000 university students and other young folks on the Houses of Parliament

In Piccadilly Circus heart of London night life 60 stalwart bobbies stood shoulder to shoulder against determined assaults on the famous statue of Eros—Greek god of love—which dominates the traffic circle Climbing the statue is a favorite stunt of celebrating Britons

One group of revelers wheeled up a wood canvas mock fire engine and tried to lay a ladder against the statue They were beaten off

Several policemen were scorched by firecrackers and roman candles One small girl was badly burned on the face

The annual celebration—in honor of a 17th century Englishman who tried to blow up the Houses of Parliament—started off calmly with millions of Britons dancing around bonfires burning effigies of 'The Guy' and drinking ale

The rioting erupted student spokesmen claimed after police had refused them a permit for a big procession through London streets and a bonfire

School was closed last Monday to enable repairs to be made and classes were held as usual on Tuesday Wednesday and Thursday Mr Ferry announced that classes will be resumed on Monday

Reds Approve Plan for Low Level Meeting

Staff Advisers Given Job of Bringing End To Korean Stalemate

PANMUNJOM (AP) — Allied and Communist diplomats today handed a team of staff advisers the tough job of ironing out disputes which have stalled efforts to arrange a Korean peace conference

U S envoy Arthur Dean and top Red negotiators recessed indefinitely while their aides try informally and probably in secret to break the deadlock.

Changes Mind

Ki Sok Bok, North Korean Foreign Ministry councillor indicated yesterday he would reject Dean's suggestion to turn the preliminary peace talks over to lower level advisers As today's session opened Ki announced unexpectedly that the Reds would accept the proposal.

The Reds stipulated that "your side give up its unreasonable stand in ignoring composition of the conference

Two staff advisers from each side will hold their first session Saturday.

A spokesman for Dean said his proposal for lower level talks was made 'in the light of the background of Korean armistice talks' The truce negotiators often "took the heat off' disputes at the top level by handing them down to staff officers for solution

U. S Representatives

Kenneth Young director of the Office of Northeast Asian (Japan and Korea) Affairs for the U S State Department and Col Stanton Babcock a senior adviser will represent Dean in the discussions

The Communists picked North Korean adviser Chon Dong Hyok and Chinese Communist Pu Shou Chand,

The Communist acceptance came so quickly that Friday's session was the shortest of 11 meetings so far It lasted only 22 minutes

Dean told newsmen he thought the staff advisers would work in executive (secret) sessions'

Alleged Killer Dies in Battle With Officers

COLUMBUS Ohio (AP)—Less than two hours after a woman was shot to death in a parking lot near police headquarters last night her suspected slayer was killed and a police detective was wounded critically in a gun battle

Margaret Fox Wierts 36 of Columbus was shot in a downtown lot about 10 p m She had been raped beaten and bound with adhesive tape police said

The woman had been shot in the chest

Moments later police were on the trail of Orville E Milton 29 of Columbus, whose license plate number was spotted by a passerby after the shooting Milton was an attendant at the parking lot

Shortly after that police went to Milton's home and were greeted by a man believed to be Milton waving a revolver The man fled through the darkness along a railroad track

About 11 30 p m police Detective Carl D Smith and Sgt Phil Momberg entered the restaurant on the fringe of downtown Columbus They found Milton in a rear rest room

Milton opened fire Smith was hit in the stomach and right chest But he emptied his revolver at

Sen. Knowland Sees GOP Set To Close Ranks

CINCINNATI (AP)—Sen Knowland (R-Calif) expressed confidence here last night the Republican party will "close its ranks' and that if it does so it will control both the House and Senate of Congress

The Californian GOP Senate leader, spoke before approximately 650 Republicans who paid $100 a plate for a dinner held in memory of Sen Robert A Taft

Can't Be Ignored

Sen Knowland asserted Tuesday's election results could not be discounted or ignored

'The results certainly should remove any feeling of complacency he said "All Americans regardless of their party affiliations should recognize that this administration fell heir to many problems foreign and domestic which had accumulated over a period of 20 years

'No fair minded person should expect that the solution can be found in less than a quarter of a single presidential term"

Declaring President Eisenhower is a 'team player," Sen Knowland added

No Bar to Control

"There is nothing in the election returns if the Republican party closes its ranks to stand in the way of its controlling both the House and Senate.

"The party will close its ranks"

Sen Knowland, who recently returned from a tour of the Far East and Europe warned that 'appeasement of the Kremlin now would be tantamount to another Munich"

"And as everyone knows" he continued 'a Munich is not the road to peace but is surrender on the installment plan"

Truman Aide Declared Spy By Brownell

Attorney General Airs Charges Against Late Harry Dexter White

CHICAGO (AP)—Atty Gen Brownell said today Harry Dexter White, assistant secretary of the Treasury in the Truman administration was a Russian spy, but was kept in the government even after the FBI reported this to the White House

The attorney general charged that in the face of this information" President Truman advanced White to the important position of executive director for the United States in the International Monetary Fund

Brownell described Truman's actions in the matter as incredible'

Brownell presented an extensive outline of White's associations with the last Democratic administration in a speech prepared for the Executives Club of Chicago

He asserted It is a source of humiliation to every American that during the period of the Truman administration the Communists were so strikingly successful in infiltrating, the government of the United States'

This he said, had left to the Eisenhower regime a 'very difficult task' of weeding out subversive elements from the federal pay roll.

White came into the government during the Roosevelt administration He died Aug 15 1948

Mock Atomic Raid Tests Ohio's Main Civil Defense Posts

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An eight-hour mock atomic attack last night gave Ohio's civil defense command posts practice in meeting a devastating foray on important industrial areas

Cleveland, Youngstown and Cincinnati were theoretically plastered with A bombs, Details of the attack won't be available for two weeks or so, says Thane N Durev a spokesman for the state CD headquarters

Purpose of the test—held simultaneously with exercises in six other states and the District of Columbia—was to iron out defense 'bugs"

Italian Court Convicts 2 Americans in Absentia

NOVARA, Italy (AP)—The Novara court today convicted two Americans for the wartime behind the lines slaying of U S Maj William Holnhan of New York City. They were tried in absentia

The court acquitted three Italian co-defendants

Judge Francesco Sicher sentenced ex Lt Aldo Icardi of Pittsburgh to life imprisonment He sentenced former Sgt Carl Lo Dolce of Rochester, N Y, to 17 years in prison

Mine Blast Claims 8

BONAZA, Utah (AP)—Two rescue workers in a giant metal bucket, dropped deep into the smoke-filled maw of a blast-wrecked gilsonite mine today but found no trace of eight missing miners

Little hope was held that the men trapped 500 feet below the surface by an explosion and fire yesterday were still alive

System Changed

New Presidential Order Frees Flow of U.S. News

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today issued an order designed to give citizens a freer flow of information about their government without jeopardizing national security

Effective Dec 15 the order replaces a controversial measure former President Truman put on the books Sept 24 1951

In announcing the forthcoming repeal of the Truman order, Atty Gen Brownell denounced it as smacking of 'dictatorship" The Cabinet officer also said that under the old order government officials could "cover up dereliction' of duty and mistakes

Truman responding to similar criticism from editors when his order was issued, denied there was any coverup involved He said the measure actually would promote the flow of news and sought only to keep security secrets from potential enemies

Brownell outlined the new Eisenhower order at a news conference before leaving for Chicago to address a meeting of the Associated Press Managing Editors Assn today He said the measure includes suggestions made by that organization the American Society of Newspaper Editors and representatives of other news media

In brief the Eisenhower order

State Highway Council Charts Road Program

Pike County Atomic Plant Area Expected To Get Improvments

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state highway construction council today started work on its final map of major state thoroughfares, which it is charged with improving.

The final map probably will be almost identical with the tentative one used during two days of public hearings on the council's classification of roads.

Clingan Jackson, council chairman, said only minor changes likely will be made in the map that puts 5,977 miles in the major thoroughfares.

Charles S. Stevenson, Portsmouth city engineer and actng city manager, told the council of the impact building of the atomic plant in Pike County has had on Portsmouth.

"We have bumper-to-bumper traffic on Chillicothe street (Ohio 23) when people are going to and from work at the atomic energy site," he said. "Lots of them live in Portsmouth, and lots drive through Portsmouth from Kentucky."

All parking will be prohibited on Chillicothe street by the end of the year to speed traffic, he said.

Stevenson asked that U.S. 52 be rerouted through Portsmouth over 11th avenue, with 11th avenue being rebuilt with state, federal and local funds. He said "11th avenue is our weakest link because it is being beaten to pieces by trucks now."

That street now is a city truck route, Stevenson added.

"What we get to spend on roads just isn't enough for everything."

Portsmouth, a city of 40,000 persons, is 17 miles south of the atomic plant. Stevenson said it is the main shopping center for atomic workers.

Stevenson was advised to confer with the state highway department.

Cleveland YMCA Gets $91,000 From U.S. Steel

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland YMCA has announced receipt of a $91,000 check from the U. S. Steel Corp. for the Y's building fund.

The check was presented by Walter F. Munford, president of the subsidiary American Steel & Wire Division, who said:

"This little piece of paper (the $91,000 check) expressed better than any words of mine what we of U. S. Steel think about the YMCA."

Corporation gifts to the fund previously announced included $200,000 each from the General Motors Corp. and Republic Steel Corp.

Tuesday's Election Set Stage

New Rural-Urban Battle Shaping Up On Location of Ohio's New Highways

By REED SMITH

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Tuesday's election set the stage for another urban-rural battle in the Ohio Legislature.

The issue will be location of new arterial highways for Ohio's heavy truck and automobile traffic.

Voters overwhelmingly approved a 500-million-dollar bond issue to finance construction faster than it could be done by the pay-as-you-go method.

A number of predominately rural counties turned thumbs down on the big bond issue but heavy favorable majorities from urban areas assured its approval.

The resolution in the form of an amendment to the Ohio Constitution requires the Legislature to meet Jan. 11 "for the sole purpose" of implementing the new construction program.

Besides arranging for the bonds, their sale and retirement, legislators may be called upon to approve the first segment of the construction program.

Highway department officials said they expect to have such a program ready for consideration. Debate over location of the new thoroughfares could make the extraordinary session last a lot longer than expected.

The Senate is dominated by members from the more populous sections of the state while the House has more representatives from rural and less populous counties.

The friction between urban and rural legislators has caused frequent battles in the past. Location of multi-million dollar highways is bound to cause more friction, officials assert.

Revenues from new taxes on trucks and gasoline are earmarked for arterial roads. They are expected to produce more than 40 million dollars annually. Other road revenues also are pledged to liquidate highway bond indebtedness, if needed before any distribution can be made to the state or political sub-divisions for other roads.

Money for new arterial roads cannot be spent until both the Legislature and the governor approve construction programs, including right of way purchases.

Critics of the amendment contend that the legisltave branch of the government encroached on the executive branch when legslators tied strings to the expenditure of revenues for arterial routes. They said the whole thing smacks of trouble even though the bond issue was part of the Republican program in the GOP-dominated 100th General Assembly.

Democrat Gov. Frank J. Lausche presumably will depend on his highway department and the new Highway Construction Council for an arterial program to submit to the Legislature. The council, created by the Legislature but named by Lausche, is entrusted with highway classification. And this is what the constitutional amendment says about arterial road money:

"Such appropriations shall be made only for major thoroughfares of the state highway system and urban extensions thereof."

The Legislature created the construction council to supervise the arterial road building and financing program. But the Senate refused to confirm Lausche's first appointees, all from Franklin County. The governor appointed a new council, now busy with road matters. The Senate will pass on membership of the new council at its Jan. 11 session.

Members are Clingan Jackson of Youngstown, chairman and former state senator, Wilbur M. Cotton of Dayton and Jessie E. VanFossen of Croton, Licking County.

The highway session of the Legislature cannot consider other matters unless the governor requests such action. Lausche has indicated that he will not make any such request.

Language Barrier Snags Driver's Test

SHAWNEE, Okla. (AP)—Highway Patrol Examiners Fred Green and George Helms bumped head on into a linguistic road block when they attempted to test Michael Szaizko a 49-year-old displaced Russian.

Szaizko doesn't speak English. His wife, a displaced German, speaks German and Russian but no English. Their daughter—Wanda, 6, could speak German and English but not Russian. So Green and Helms first tried to give the test by talking to the girl, who told Mama, who told Papa. The answers came back the same route, except it all got too confusing.

So another displaced German, Jelsi Joelo, a mechanic here, was called in. He speaks German and English and passed on the questions to the wife who relayed them to Szaizko.

He promptly flunked the driving test.

Denver Widow Pays Off Her Mortage for $9.46

DENVER (AP)—A Denver widow paid off a $9,000 mortgage on her home yesterday at a cost of $9.46.

Her husband applied for life insurance which paid the mortgage last Saturday. He died next day.

Actuarial experts estimated the odds against such a circumstance at more than a million to one.

George Smart, 31, a head file clerk for the Denver Rio Grande Western Railroad, took a physical examination for his policy the day before he died.

GM Recovers Quickly From Fire Disaster

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors Corp. has just accomplished what many industrial experts considered a virtually impossible task.

Twelve weeks after fire destroyed its huge hydra - matic transmission plant in nearby Livonia it has begun manufacturing and assembling the units in rented space at Willow Run, west of here.

Announcement that the automatic transmissions have begun to roll from Willow Run was made yesterday by Harlow H. Curtice, president of General Motors He said "recovery from the fire has been due largely to the extraordinary team-work within the General Motors organization and the generous cooperation extended to us by suppliers and other manufacturers."

Curtice said only limited volume has been attained at Willow Run, but added "We expect to increase output gradually until we achieve full scale production early in December."

To achieve production at Willow Run in only slightly more than two months, 2,300 machines from the Livonia plant were rebuilt. They were sent to some 356 machine tool builders and 18 other GM divisions. A large number of new machines also were built to supplement the salvaged equipment.

Britain's Big Meat Industry Is Slated To Be Decontrolled

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Churchill's government announced today it will restore Britain's vast meat industry to private traders next summer and simultaneously end rationing and price control of meat and bacon.

Control over the meat industry—including buying and selling—was imposed as a wartime measure But it was continued by the post-war Labor government, whose leaders claimed the government could do the job more efficiently and economically than private dealers

Churchill's Conservative party consistently opposed this idea. Announcing its future plans, a government white paper stated:

"The Ministry of Food will continue for some time to come to import bacon, but will not trade in meat. 1954 will thus see the end of rationing."

By that time, too, every item in the British housewife's larder will be freed from government control, according to present plans.

Lecture-Recital Group Changes Meeting Date

A change in the date of the Lecture-Recital Club's next patroness program from Nov. 9 to Nov. 23 has been announced by the program committee headed by Mrs. J. Paul Goebel and Mrs. George Lane.

The guest musicians scheduled for the appearance at that time at the Hotel Harding ballroom will be Mr and Mrs Robert Hladky of Delaware who play cello and flute. Second of the three patroness programs set up for the year, it will be open to the public, and tickets are yet available from members of the club. The third program of the series will be in March when Rev. Bliss Wiant of Delaware, a former music professor in China, will be presented in a lecture and demonstration of Chinese instruments. The first program for which the patroness tickets were issued featured a string ensemble from Oberlin College. Time of each program is 8 o'clock

Police Chief, State Patrol Urge Extra Caution for Pedestrian

Extra caution on the part of pedestrians was urged this week by Police Chief Tom Coon and State Highway Patrol Official Corporal D. M. DeWalt They made the request in warning pedestrians that this time of year, with its early sunsets, is especially dangerous to the careless walker

Both law enforcement officials urged pedestrians to follow these rules:

1. Cross streets only at intersections and stay within crosswalks
2. Obey all traffic signs and signals
3. Look left and right before crossing a street; and watch for turning cars.
4. Don't play or run on the streets
5. Never dash from the curb into the street nor walk suddenly from a spot where a parked car blocks the view of the pedestrian or motorist
6. Where there are no sidewalks walk on left facing traffic.
7. At night, wear some light colored clothing or carry something white, even a flashlight. Do not rely on the motorist seeing the pedestrian.

Chief Coon and Cpl. DeWalt cautioned pedestrians against hurrying too much in their efforts to reach home after the day's work. They said the rushing pedestrian is often the careless pedestrian Especially warned were children under 15 and adults over 65. Children tend to play in the street or run into the path of a car; while older persons have little if any, chance of urvival if seriously injured by an automobile.

Motorists should also watch their driving habits, according to the two men. They said while the pedestrian was frequently at fault, it was the driver's responsibility to avoid accidents. There would be no pedestrian accidents were there no automobiles on the streets, they said.

Chicagoan Caught In Cleveland With $16,000 in Heroin

CLEVELAND (AP) — Federal narcotics agents, after an all-night vigil in Union Terminal, arrested a 31-year-old Chicago man Thursday and said they would charge him with carrying $16,000 worth of heroin.

The man gave his name as Jesse Pierce and said he owned two restaurants in Chicago.

Today's seizure brought to $111,000 the sale value of dope confiscated here in the past two weeks A man and two women had been arrested previously for heroin possession.

Charles Voll, acting agent-in-charge of the U. S. narcotics office here, said he had been tipped Pierce would attempt to make a heroin delivery today. He quoted Pierce as saying he brought the 10 ounces of heroin here because "I needed some fast money to pay off debts."

Ticket Agents Strike Northwest Airlines

NEW YORK (AP)—Ticket agents and other clerical workers of Northwest Airlines struck today for higher pay. The line's airplanes continued in service on domestic and transpacific routes.

Strike leaders here said the strike applied throughout the line's system and about 800 workers would be involved in the walkout

The strikers are represented by the AFL Brotherhood of Railway and Steamship Clerks, aviation division.

Ohio's High Court Will Hear Sanitary District Objections

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Supreme Court will study objections by Youngstown, Niles and the Ohio Water Service Co. to lower court decisions favoring the Mahoning Valley Sanitary District.

The dispute concerns the district's multi-million dollar expansion program supplying water to the two cities. A special common pleas court approved a report appraising benefits from the program.

The appellants say the report ignores lands outside the district which would benefit.

Youngtown, in a companion case, questioned authority of the special court in charging that city with 83 per cent of the expansion costs and Niles with 17 per cent.

$7,102,409 Turnpike Contract Is Awarded

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Eight miles of the Ohio Turnpike in Sandusky County will be built by the W. L. Johnson Construction Co. — Associates of Columbus at a cost of $7,102,409

The Ohio Turnpike Commission yesterday awarded the work to that company, putting $154,213 012 of turnpike roadway and bridges under contract.

Contracts for 170 miles of roadway and bridges of the 241-mile superroad are contracted for. Oct. 1, 1955, has been set as the opening date for the entire turnpike, although the eastern end will open earlier

U.S. To Provide Allies With New Type Aircraft

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—Gen. Nathan Twining, U.S. Air Force chief of staff, said today the United States will supply advanced types of jet aircraft to allied countries under the mutual defense assistance program "just as soon as they are available."

Speaking at a news conference attended by U S. Air Force Secretary Harold E. Talbott and American Ambassador Cavendish Cannon, Twining said there were plans in Washington to begin replacing the F84 Thunderjets now being provided European countries under the MDA program.

He did not specify what types of "more advanced aircraft" would be sent.

Protecting Our Backyard

The United States is waging battle against communism near and far. We're fighting with dollars throughout Asia and Europe and at home we're kicking the Reds out of our attics and cellars.

But what about our own backyard?

Soon, a report will be issued by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee's Security Affairs Subcommittee on the worldwide strength of the Communist party.

Many Americans are going to be surprised to find that though the Communist party is outlawed in many countries of South and Central America, Communists are occupying key places in intellectual life, trade union movement and government, and in general, creating trouble.

To rush in and attempt to halt communism would be the wrong move — it would insult and offend our southern neighbors. To recognize the existence and plot a strategic course seems wiser.

Sen. Alexander Wiley (R-Wis) who heads the security subcommittee has offered a plan to help our neighbors and ourselves. It embodies six points:

Exporting American capital for development of native industry and agriculture; exporting American know-how to help these lands uplift their comparatively low standards of living; increased political understanding; expanded cultural relations; closer military cooperation, and increased trade.

The importance of retaining good relations with the nations in our backyard is quite easily evident: Panama is a key to our security; communism's great objective is underdeveloped areas; Colombia's sacrifices in the United Nations cause in Korea.

We need a Golden Rule type of agreement with these southern neighbors—good relations and cooperation will work miracles when they're two-sided.

Speculation in Britain

There seems to be considerable speculation behind the request of Queen Elizabeth II that Parliament change the regency law to establish the Duke of Edinburgh as reigning monarch if anything should happen to her during the next 13 years.

Prince Charles who will soon be 5 is heir-apparent to the throne but until he becomes 18 a regent would act for him should something happen to the Queen and the Prince accede to the throne.

Under the present arrangement Princess Margaret is the regent and would act for young Charles. The Queen's request would make a king-size daddy out of the Duke and permit him to guide his son's education and be reining monarch should anything happen. It also would add prestige to the Queen's husband.

Reports claim that Margaret's romance of last summer with a commoner is over, but rumors insist the regency request is to pave the way for Margaret to be on her own — free to marry a commoner if she desires.

Regency changes, though not common, have been enacted throughout British history. One arrangement applied to Victoria while she was a minor and during her reign two other regency provisions were enacted.

The naming of the Duke as regent also would bring the Queen Mother onto the Council of State which rules when the Queen is away from the British Isles.

Although a stormy session is predicted in the House of Commons over the change, it is expected to be approved before the Queen and her husband leave to tour the Commonwealth Nov. 23.

Quick Action on Roads

Because the voters said they wanted Ohio's roads improved and passed a $500,000,000 bond issue for this purpose, the Ohio Legislature will be back in session Jan. 11

Also approved was a measure establishing a state board of education but this won't be considered at the special session unless Gov. Lausche adds it to the agenda.

The road bond issue carried a provision that required the legislature to meet in special session to get the program under way, the school board proposal did not. Customarily, special sessions consider only those subjects specified by the governor in his call.

Before issuing the road bonds, the legislators must approve raising the debt ceiling — sounds just like Washington.

A new highway council is busy classifying Ohio's roads but the legislature will have final say on expenditures to ease the state's auto-truck traffic.

The people established their desires and approved the pattern, now their representatives must carry the plan through — highway advancement in Ohio is assured; it is under way.

Did You Know

Porcupines of the past "wrote" their own histories when they gnawed tree bark a century or more ago, says the National Geographic Society. By boring into the trees and counting the rings, scientists can tell when the gnawing was done and thus when and where porcupines were most numerous.

Wishful Thinkers Find Trend in Off-Year Vote

There was a pattern in Tueday's election but it was local — not national.

The American people voted as they always have before—against corruption and candidacies tainted with a party record of improper conduct or maladministration and against extravagance in the handling of public funds.

They even voted against those who made "McCarthyism" the issue in the heart of New York City.

But the wishful thinkers will see national trends. Maybe the Democrats will gain in the 1954 elections, but there isn't the slightest evidence on the basis of Tuesday's elections to warrant any such inference.

FOR EXAMPLE, there are the most important election developments and some questions they raise:

1—New Dealism was defeated in Virginia when tens of thousands of Democrats who supported Stevenson last year voted the Republican ticket for governor this time in an effort to defeat Senator Byrd's candidate for governor. Is Byrd's victory and the repudiation of New Deal policies a national trend?

2—The Republican organization in Philadelphia — driven from power two years ago for the first time in 70 years, as a "liberal" Democrat was elected mayor — came back this week by defeating Mayor Clark, one of the outstanding supporters of Gov. Stevenson in 1952. Is this a trend?

3—A Republican candidate for governor in New Jersey who accepted the support of the former Democratic machine boss and who wrote a letter asking a parole for a labor leader convicted of extortion was defeated. The Republican party retained control of the legislature.

SCANDALS in the state house under Republican rule, showing a tie-up with gangster elements, and charges of "hot money" finding its way into Republican organization coffers, have made the headlines for months. Is this a trend?

4—Tammany Hall, long known as one of the most corrupt political organizations in America, elected a mayor of New York City on the Democratic ticket. The vote was split three ways, and the victor got about 50 per cent of the total. Is this return to the rule of a political machine a trend?

5—The Republican organization of Cook County — in and around Chicago — won seven out of thirteen judicial contests in an upset where Democratic rule usually prevails. This was an unexpected show of strength for the Republicans. Is this a trend?

6—A Democrat was elected to Congress in the sixth district of New Jersey in a special election wherein the Republican nominee was not endorsed by his Republican predecessor and the leading Republican newspaper in the area refused to endorse the Republican candidate.

THE PARTY was split over rule by a Republican boss.

The supporters of the New Deal Republican who hah held the office switched in large numbers to the Democratic candidate who pledged himself to support his predecessor's policies and won by a narrow margin. Is this a trend?

7—A Republican mayor was defeated by a Democrat by a close vote in Columbus, Ohio, on charges that he had been extravagant, but all Republican councilmen were elected. Is this a trend?

8—A Republican who was elected mayor of Little Rock, Ark., two years ago, thus overturning an unbroken Democratic record of 60 years, was re-elected by an even bigger majority this time. Is this a trend?

9—The Republicans won 25 mayoralty races in New York State — a net gain of two mayors over previous elections — and both Houses of the Legislature remained in Republican control by the same margin as before. Is this a trend?

10—Robert Morris, chief counsel for the Senate Internal Security Committee, who has won praise from all fair-minded persons for his objective handling of witnesses, was elected municipal judge on the Republican ticket despite desperate efforts by the National Lawyers Guild and other "pinks" in New York to defeat him. He was the only Republican elected on the judicial slate in New York City. Is this a trend?

-:-

THIS CORRESPONDENT voted the straight Democratic ticket for state offices in Virginia because he felt the Republican candidates favored New Deal spending and extravagance and were being supported by the Stevenson Democrats on a New Deal platform.

Does this mean the writer is "trending" to the New Deal because of a vote for a Democrat in the gubernatorial race?

Again—in the recent Wisconsin election—a Democrat was elected to the House of Representatives who pledged himself to support the record of a Republican "isolationist" with votes against the Marshall Plan and measures of that kind. Is this a trend in the Democratic party and is former President Truman now happy to welcome "isolationists" to his political bosom?

The upshot of it all is that locally party labels aren't what they used to be and that ideological points of view are being exhibited in both parties. Franklin D. Roosevelt always considered congressional elections in the off-years to be "local."

IN 1942, when the Republicans won 209 seats in the House of Representatives and the Democrats only 22 as compared with peak of 333 in 1936, Mr. Roosevelt insisted that it was an election based on local issues and personalities and didn't signify a "trend." He was right. For in 1944 the Democrats went back up to 242 seats in the House and won the presidency, too.

So trends aren't trends except with the wishful thinkers in both parties, and anybody who can detect a mandate this week in the municipal and state elections and in one congressional district is discovering something which most of the Republican and Democratic leaders privately will not admit — though their publicity concedes or claims lots of things for reasons of future strategy.

Post Office Reforms Paying Off

By Phil G. Goulding

They are losing a million dollars every working day in the Post Office Department now — and that makes them pretty happy.

Arthur E. Summerfield, who did a little better than that in the auto business back in Flint, Mich., admits that he isn't satisfied but he feels his department is off to a good start.

When he took over the loss ran over $2,000,000 a day!

Summerfield encountered something foreign to the business world he knew the day he became postmaster general.

This was a bigger business—with more than 500,000 employees, 30,000 vehicles, 41,000 offices and the largest savings system in the world.

"Staggering," was Summerfield's word for it

But size was not the only difficulty, nor even the greatest one. The Michigan Republican soon found he was trying to do a job without control over the prices he charged for his product or the salaries he paid his workers.

-:-

MOST OF THESE decisions are made by Congress. The postmaster general may recommend, of course, but the mail service touches every voter in every dark corner of the nation, and Capitol Hill is not reluctant to tell postal authorities who is boss.

Other bodies in addition to Congress must be faced. The Interstate Commerce Commission fixes fees paid for transporting mail by rail; the Civil Aeronautics Board rules on airmail fees.

For additional operations normally in charge of management, Summerfield must go to the Bureau of the Budget, the General Accounting Office and the General Services Administration.

In the minds of most men, griping at postal service is just as legitimate as beefing at umpires. The new postmaster general found a lot of things that made him unhappy

They had no cost standards, no modern accounting and not a certified public accountant on the payroll.

Despite the mammoth number of employes, Summerfield found no personnel department, no proper direction of personnel from Washington and no adequate training program.

Branch managers from each of the 41,000 offices had to report regularly to one headquarters here.

-:-

POSTAL SERVICE had deteriorated all over the nation, the postmaster thought. He described it as a "serious breakdown," not only in deliveries, but in collection, handling and distribution as well.

In his mind, relations with the public had been woefully neglected and liaison with Congress and the various regulatory agencies given insufficient attention.

"Serious irregularities" in some major post offices provided evidence of a definite lack of managerial control, he says.

What it added up so was inadequate service, a record deficit in fiscal 1952 of $727,000,000 and an estimated deficit in the Truman budget for fiscal 1954 of $746,000,000.

Since World War II, the postal deficit built up to a mammoth $3,800,000,000. The interest alone is costing the taxpayers $100,000,000 a year.

Summerfield thinks it justifiable, and perhaps inevitable, that our children must pay the cost of fighting wars to preserve freedom.

But he can find no logical reason why these future generations should be saddled with unpaid postal bills.

After he had examined the responsibility which President Eisenhower had given him, Summerfield decided on four major objectives.

TO IMPROVE service; to cut the deficit—through economies and modern management techniques; to eliminate from postal accounting the burdens of subsidies, i.e., to have Congress label subsidies as such and remove them from the department's budget, and to convince Congress that postal rates should be hiked.

Summerfield and his top aides discovered quickly that arrangements for transportation of mail were outmoded. The same old contracts had been renewed year after year, they say, with no apparent effort made to keep up with transport changes.

The new regime recognized that railroads, losing passengers' money, had eliminated many trains which carried the mail. A survey showed a need for more intelligent use of buses and motor trucks. It was believed that the air industry could participate more extensively.

More use is now being made of the highway system. Over 100 shorthaul truck routes have been developed to speed up service.

More mail is being sorted in mail cars en route, which makes for faster deliveries at terminals.

Commercial passenger buses are carrying preferential mail.

NEGOTIATIONS are being held with railroads to change their schedules in order that delivery time may be advanced.

The most radical change in the transport field has been an experiment to send three-cent first-class mail by air.

This was begun only last month on mail between Washington, New York and Chicago. Regular six-cent airmail has priority and no guarantee is given the three-cent writer that his particular letter will be flown.

The idea is to make use of spare airline space. Whereas the lowest service rate for preferred airmail is 45 cents a ton-mile, four lines are getting 18 to 20 cents for the experiment.

As another experiment, 18 outmoded fourth-class branches were closed in Wilkes County, N. C. Rural Free Delivery routes there were consolidated and expanded.

The Department figured the result meant better service for less money. The pattern was repeated in other parts of North Carolina and in Virginia, West Virginia and Tennessee Five hundred rural post offices have been closed.

More will be shut down and more rural routes used wherever population shifts and improved roads make it practicable.

Washington was used for another test operation. Windows were kept open longer and collections from street-corner boxes made later at night.

WHEN IT WAS learned here that 80,000 letters were being delivered at least 24 hours earlier, the plan was tried in 28 other cities. Now it has spread to 312 major communities.

Management studies were made to cut excessive layers of supervision and unnecessary duplication. Budget practices are being revised. Modern accounting methods are being installed, with the assistance of a firm of certified public accountants.

With 72 per cent of postal expenditures going for wages, personnel problems and work-per-man-per-hour is important.

An "adequate" control of costs program is being developed. Summerfield requested from Congress —and received — authority to add a new assistant postmaster in charge of a personnel department.

A study of decentralization was made. In the near future, a "test" region will be set up composed of Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky.

7,000,000 Pen Pals

By JAMES WHITE

COPENHAGEN

Youth since World War II has become increasingly interested in what goes on in other countries, declares Denmark's ex-schoolmaster, ex-international footballer and pioneer scout, Dr. Sven V. Knudsen.

"The proof of this," the doctor said, "is that since 1945 hundreds of thousands of boys and girls have asked for pen pals abroad."

Dr. Knudsen should know, for he is the founder of the world's biggest pen friendship club with 7,000,000 members in 164 countries. On a rough estimate post offices all over the world sell an extra 44,000,000 stamps a year because of him.

This year the club is celebrating its 25th anniversary. And to mark this event this month Dr. Knudsen will publish the first "Pen Pal Annual" to tell the story of the organization.

This is no money-making racket. The scheme just pays for itself, no more. Its aim is simply to promote international understanding. Four salaried assistants, Danish diplomats, the Danish Post Office and ministries of education in many countries cooperate with Dr. Sven in his labor of love.

"We don't work with children under 14, or anyone over 21, but essentially with youth," he related "All they have to do is to send two five-cent international reply coupons from the nearest post office. They are then sent the name of a pen friend chosen at random from among many thousands of other applicants.

"The name of each is also sent to three other boys or girls in different parts of the world. Those who wish can specify the countries where they want pen pals, and whether they wish to correspond with a boy or a girl. Most prefer the opposite sex!"

Apart from the war years the plan has been snowballing along since 1926, putting English boys in touch with Chilean girls, Americans in touch with Indonesians, and, says Knudsen, "the international language is English."

Often whole schools register for pen pals. Recently Denmark's delegate to UNESCO appealed to member nation to supply the names of 50,000 between the ages of 14 and 21 from each of their 60 countries.

All pen pal letters, says Knudsen, are alike. "They all want to tell what they are doing. Artificial national peculiarities we forget about. The race of youth has no peculiarities. We treat Mongolia just like Texas. Since Yugoslavia emerged from behind the Iron Curtain 5,000 boys and girls from there have been found pen pals"

There is even a pen pals league championship. Points go to those who have established the greatest number of friends throughout the world.

Then Lot chose him all the plain of Jordan.—Gen. 13:11. The capital city was Sodom. It was a bad place to establish a home and rear a family. Lot learned the hard way. The story was handed down by story tellers for a thousand years before committed to writing. Abraham chose more wisely, he left a noble example and a worthy seed.

Zoo Furnishes Bonnets

DALLAS (AP)—Eagles are getting scarce in these parts or Indians aren't the eagle-eyed marksmen they used to be. So says Dallas zoo man Laurence Curtis. Ten Indians from Anadarko, Oklahoma, reservation visited the zoo to gather cast-off tail feathers from the floors of the eagles cages. They use them to make war bonnets.

Big Steel and Show Biz

The United States Steel Corporation has teamed up with the theater Guild. It is doing well, but always has felt it would be good business to have an "Oklahoma."

Corey, Stettinius, Farrell, Fairless and other notables of the steel industry were okay, but, after, all, they weren't as sure-fire money makers as Rodgers & Hammerstein.

Big Steel is now sponsoring a super TV program via the Guild, just another proof of a yielding by industry to the slogan "There's no business like show business." The trend is sensational. General Motors has a half-dozen big airwave programs, in fact you can't tune in without running into some performance for which the auto industry is the "angel."

General Electric, American Tobacco, Chrysler Motors, Consolidated Edison, Revere Brass and dozens of other top corporation are in the entertainment business.

A stockholder can't look at his TV screen very often without wondering how the trend is going to affect dividends. There was a time when he could figure out his prospects by merely noting the corporation reports on business situations, today he has to figure out what Berle, Groucho Marx, Ed Sullivan, Garroway and the Theater Guild are costing.

-:-

We were checking on our investments only yesterday One corporation seemed doing very well in the metal trades but we weren't sure of its progress in the way of comedians and ballets. (When we bought the stock some years back there wasn't a jackpot program, an acrobatic troupe of a musical comedy format in its entire balance sheet.)

We have some shares in a big oil company. Bought it because we thought it was in the oil industry and that we were getting in on oil wells, petroleum products, etc. Had no idea we were filling our portfolio with name bands, eccentric dancers, nightclub comics, trained dogs, famous crooners and fugitives from the Metropolitan Opera. (We called up our broker about these comedians. He assured us they were all right for the long pull, but that the acrobats should be held only for a quick turnover.)

-:-

We inquired about U.S. Steel Common and Theater Guild Pfd. "Hold 'em," our broker advised. "Steel has always envied 'Oklahoma' and other Guild operations.

A steel rail can lose its appeal overnight but 'Oh, What a Beautiful Morning' can go on forever. The tie-up with the Guild is good business

When you see a skyscraper skeleton you will think of Celeste Holm. Look at a new suspension bridge and your mind will swing to Alfred Drake.

Observe a freight loaded with girders and you will start humming 'People Will Say We're in Love,' and wonder if equity is involved."

The Nobel peace prizes went this year to General Marshall and Dr Albert Schweitzer . . . This disposed of the idea Ed Murrow and Arthur Godfrey might get them.

Sinatra and Ava Gardner are calling it quits after two years of marriage, declaring they still have the "deepest respect for each other" . . . Nevertheless, we never have yet heard a crooner sing it "Your eyes, your lips, your kisses true, fill me with deep respect for you."

No in any movie have we seen a story end with "And so they lived in deep mutual respect ever after."

Bishop Fulton J Sheen has the most piercing eyes on TV. . . . "Hours after his telecast has ended his eyes are still following me," we heard a TV addict say. . . . (First man to appear with channel-swimming eyes, he means.)

"I may have mishandled my wife on occasions but only to protect myself."—John Wayne. Is he implying that those stirring battles with all the forces of nature (not to mention those rugged scenes in which all the tables and chairs get knocked over) don't really keep a man in top physical shape for an argument with the little woman

Prize Vatican Manuscripts To Be Microfilmed

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Vatican library's priceless collection of ancient manuscripts is being microfilmed for a Pope Pius XII memorial library to be built at St Louis Mo.

Details of the project were announced yesterday in a joint statement issued here by Archbishop Joseph E. Ritter of St. Louis and the Very Rev. John B. Janssens, father general of the Society of Jesus.

The library will be built at St. Louis University, a Roman Catholic institution. Plans call for construction to start late next year. The work is expected to cost from four to five million dollars and a fund-raising campaign is now being organized.

The joint statement announced the Pope had granted permission of the library in his name. Much of the microfilming already has been completed with the cost being paid by the Knights of Columbus. This phase of the work is expected to be completed within two years.

The Vatican's collection of 50,000 hand-letter volumes are estimated to contain 600,000 manuscripts, including many of the treasures of ancient learning.

British To Redraft Constitution of British Guiana

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Churchill's government has asked parliamentary action on an order formally suspending British Guiana's constitution and setting up an interim administration.

The new organization plan, submitted to Parliament last night, provides for an executive council and legislative council. The two bodies will be closely supervised by the British governor and he will appoint department heads.

The governor has been administering the South American colony under emergency powers granted him by the Colonial Office after it suspended the Guianan constitution on Oct. 9 At that time, the government of the Progressive People's party was kicked out on grounds it was conspiring to establish a Communist state.

Crash Kills 8 Including Ex-Pro Football Player

PLATTE CITY, Mo. (AP)—Two automobiles collided headon on a highway near here Wednesday killing eight young people including Dick Reinking, former college and professional football player.

Reinking, 27, and his wife, Camille, 25, were in one car. Six young men were in the other. The impact was so great the cars had to be pulled apart with chains attached to trucks.

Authorities, who blamed excessive speed for the crash, said the speedometer of the car in which the six men were riding was stuck at 83 miles per hour.

Reinking was a star left end at Southern Methodist in 1945 and 1946.

TWO NEW MEMBERS were welcomed into the group when the Elks Women's Club met Wednesday evening in the club lounge for an evening of cards. The new members are Mrs. Florence Williamson and Mrs. John Rife. Awards in cards were won by Mrs. Fred Kempton, contract, Mrs. C. W. Chapman, auction, Mrs. Arthur Tyde, canasta, and Mrs. Paul Baker, euchre. Serving on the refreshment committee were Mrs. George Leonard, chairman, and Mrs. Charles Simonis.

—:—

The parsonage home of Mrs. J. T. Yocom was the place of meeting for the Morral Methodist Home Builders Class Tuesday night. A program included readings on autumn and Thanksgiving. Scripture was read by Mrs. W. W. Morral, and prayer was by Mrs. Yocom. Birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Chester Hilborn, Mrs. Morral, and Mrs. Yocom were honored. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. John Marshall, and program committee will be Mrs. John Shifflet and Mrs. Maggie Wise. During social hour, contests were held.

—:—

The first tea dance of the season for students of Eber Baker Junior High School was held recently in the youth center of the YMCA.

Sponsored by the Student Council, the program was called "Witch's Whirl" and featured a pumpkin promenade, skeleton skip, cat's meow, and beggar's bounce. The youth center was decorated with Halloween motives for the occasion by a committee composed of Pat Giles, Marty Bowden, Susie Ziegler, Lynn Greetham, Susie Roberts, Janet Augenstein, and Charles Balthaser. Posters and programs in keeping with the theme of the dance were designed by Charles Ziegler and serving on the program committee were Dixie Geddis, Sue Haen, Dick Williams, and Georgann Williams.

Nancy Boger was in charge of the intermission program which featured a tap dance by Gloria Plumley, Gary Sanders, Ralph Taylor, and Joan Cooper composed the music committee and Douglas Maxwell and Charles Ziegler were responsible for publicity. The student committees were assisted by Miss Helen May, Miss Barbara Axe, Donald Baggs, and Gene Maynard, faculty members, and Clark M. Fouts, principal.

Members of the school Tri-Hi-Y Club, under the supervision of their advisor, Miss Lela Brookshire, were in charge of the refreshment stand. Prior to the dance, orientation and instruction periods were conducted for seventh grade pupils by upper classmen under the direction of the faculty committee.

A Halloween party was held by Girl Scout Troop 10, comprised of girls of the seventh grade at Edison Junior High School, Thursday evening, Oct. 29, at the home of Jeanne Leaper on Woodrow Ave. Following the judging of costumes, a short business meeting was held in charge of Janice Emmons, president. Games and contests provided entertainment during the evening and refreshments were served by Mrs. Mary Alice Leaper, assisted by Mrs. Helen Meister.

Troop members present included Barbara Walter, Joyce Miller, Nancy Creasap, Janet Jones, Loretta Scroggins, Judie McCoy, Janice Emmons, Janis Massie and Jeanne Leaper.

The group recently held a farewell party at the Leaper home for Peggy McClarey, a member, who moved to Harpster.

—:—

Mrs. Don Howard was hostess for a meeting of the Round Table Club Wednesday at her home, 704 Uhler Rd. Mrs. Ralph Carhart, in charge of the program, presented a paper, "Indian Folk Lore," which she illustrated with colored slides and records. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Grace Nippert on Lafayette St.

—:—

The program topic was "Scientific Knowledge of Stewardship" when the WSCS of the Morral Methodist Church met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John Marshall. Devotions, including a song, scripture and prayer, opened the meeting, and Mrs. Marshall gave comments on the topic, "Knowledge a Heritage." For the program, a number of topics were discussed by the members. Plans were made for a supper to be held Saturday, Nov. 21, at the Morral fire house.

—:—

Members of the Literature Study Club were entertained Wednesday evening at the Women's Club Home with Mrs. Ashley Booth serving as hostess. Mrs. Francis Drake, president, presided for the business meeting, and for the program, Miss Irene Huhn reviewed the book "Out of the Midwest" by Frank Seidel. The next meeting will be Nov. 18 with Mrs. C. E. Henney of Delaware Ave.

—:—

Mrs. Richard Langdon and Mrs. William Collins served as cohostesses for a meeting of the Iota Delta Chapter, Child Conservation League, held Monday evening at the Langdon home, 276 Homer St.

Mrs. Dana Kirts opened the meeting by reading an invocation which had been written for the 33rd CCL convention held Oct. 9 in Cleveland by Mrs. Addison Bain, who died recently. Mrs. Bain was the first CCL state president.

For the program, a demonstration of "Clever Gift and Party Ideas With Ribbons" was given by Mrs. Clifford Irey. Refreshments were served by the hostesses. The next meeting will be a Christmas dinner Dec. 7 at the YMCA.

—:—

A luncheon Tuesday in the community room over the West Town Branch of the National City Bank closed the season for the Garden Center Club. Mrs. Robert White, president, presided for the meeting during which new presidents of the six garden clubs were welcomed as new members of the Garden Center. Annual reports were given by various committee chairmen and a discussion was held on this year's flower show.

Mrs. Millie Cull and Mrs. Gladys Wilford of 352 N. Main St. returned home Wednesday after spending several days visiting relatives in Akron.

Farm Group Considers Plan for Legal Advice

Farm Bureau members in Marion County will discuss the problem of consulting a lawyer when they meet with their local Council Advisory groups this month.

A spokesman at the Farm Bureau indicated today that the 11 local groups in the county would probably follow the plan sent out by the federation in Columbus. Under this plan, farmers will discuss the advantages of hiring a qualified legal expert to iron out their problems.

The same program will be followed in all the 1,500 local councils in the state. Reason for the discussion was given as the increasing need for farmers to know when to consult a trained lawyer. Recent changes in the laws was another reason advanced for the discussion. During the course of the meetings, members will talk about the various situations which should be handled by a lawyer.

Man Lets 9 Birds Free In Store, Goes to Jail

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Ernest McDade, 23-year-old seaman from Mountain City, Tenn., was put behind bars after he freed 13 birds from their cages.

He opened the cages in a dime store yesterday and released four canaries and nine parakeets. All except a few had been recaptured last night.

Larry Kabel, manager of the store's pet department, said that McDade started by opening a cage and telling a canary, "Come on out, little birdie, I was in jail once. I know how you feel."

Couple Wed Fifty Years

MR. AND MRS. REUBEN SNYDER

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Snyder of near Prospect and formerly of Marion will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday with an open house for friends and relatives.

The celebration will be held from 2 to 4 in the afternoon and from 7 to 9 in the evening. The Snyder residence is located at Centerville on county road 78, northwest of Newman's Bridge.

The couple was married Nov. 7, 1903 in the parsonage of the United Brethren Church in Marion. Rev. Snyder officiated at the wedding.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Snyder are natives of Marion County.

Before his retirement in 1950, Mr. Snyder was employed as a guard at the Universal Cooler Co. He held that position 10 years. Before working for Universal, he was a foundry worker.

They have three children, two daughters and a son. The daughters are Mrs. Betty Piper of near Marion, and Mrs. Ruby Wolf of near Prospect. The son is Paul Snyder of 122½ DeWolfe Ct. There are also three grandchildren.

Other relatives of the couple include a sister of Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Clara Strong of Sunnyside, Wash., and a sister of Mr. Snyder, Mrs. Lucy Chapman of Grand Ave., Marion.

-:- Campus Notebook -:-

Miss Harriman, a senior at Bowling Green, plays the trombone. She is a graduate of Morral High School and is active in 4-H work, being advisor of the Morral Farmerettes 4-H club. Also a member of the band is Neal E. Sprang of Kenton, who plays a tuba.

—:—

Richard Maxim, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Maxim of near Marion, was elected secretary of the student chapter of the Ohio Society of Professional Engineers of Ohio Northern University at Ada at the group's first monthly meeting recently. He replaced Jim Parks who was inducted into the Army during last summer. A 1946 graduate of Harding High School, Maxim spent five years in the Navy as an electronics technician prior to entering Ohio Northern. He spent two years aboard destroyers in the Atlantic fleet and the last year of his enlistment was spent as an instructor in electronics school at Great Lakes, Ill.

Bad Day for Laborer

PHOENIX (AP)—It was a rough day for Francisco Gutierrez, 60-year-old farm laborer.

He drove onto the railroad tracks and his car was smacked by a switch engine. The car was carted off to the junk yard.

Gutierrez went to a hospital with cracked ribs.

Then he was issued a citation for failure to see that a locomotive was coming before driving onto the tracks.

Marion Chamber Completing Plans For Yearly Dinner

Final plans for the annual dinner meeting of the Marion Chamber of Commerce, to be held at Hotel Harding at 6:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 16, will be completed Monday.

Hugh E. Webster, secretary of the Chamber, said details of the plans will be approved with the return Monday of the Chamber's new president, Edgar W. Barnhart, from a trip to the west coast.

Toastmaster for the dinner will be M. Paul Hunt, junior past president of the C. of C.

Guest speaker will be Captain Michael Fielding, news analyst, world traveler and adventurer. Topic of his talk will be "The Way Out."

Billed as a speaker who forecasts major news events before they actually become news, Major Fielding travels extensively and each summer undertakes trips to world trouble spots where the news is in the making.

Born of English-Irish parents in India in 1896 he came to the United States in 1920 after serving as a captain in the Indian Army for five years. He is now a naturalized citizen of this country.

Honor guests will be present for the dinner meeting from Columbus and Detroit, Webster said.

Flood of Mail Falls Off After Benson Action

Reorganization Plan Put Into Effect, Eases Pressure on Secretary

By OVID A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—The office of Secretary of Agriculture Benson is getting a respite from a flood of telegrams and letters that poured in on it in recent weeks either protesting or supporting his plan to reorganize the department.

The flow of such communications, aides said today fell off to a trickle after Benson on Monday ordered the plan into immediate effect in the face of requests of some farm groups and some congressmen that it be deferred.

Before he took this action, hundreds of messages were received, most of them taking positions on his proposed plan to alter the department's Soil Conservation Service. The principal change involved abolition of seven regional offices of the conservation service.

This proposal brought sharp protests from the National Association of Soil Conservation districts. It contended the reorganization plan would virtually ruin the conservation service—a claim which Benson has denied.

Benson aides said it appeared the bulk of the communications received before Benson acted Monday were inspired by groups which both opposed and favored the plan. Many were identical in wording, they said.

Aides said that fewer than two dozen communications have so far been received since the secretary ordered the plan into operation. They said that all but about two commended Benson.

Local Youth Forum Begins Broadcasts

"Youth and the Problems of Dating" will be discussed by four Marion teenagers on the newly-initiated Marion Youth Forum program, broadcast over WMRN each Sunday from 3:05 to 3:30 p.m.

Appearing on the panel will be Carole Ann Lee, freshman at Taft Junior High School, Elaine Coy, eighth grader at Edison Junior High, Joe Merchant, Harding High sophomore, and Gary Sanders, freshman at Eber Baker Junior High. Harold Edwards, director of instruction in the public schools, is moderator for the discussions.

The students were chosen by Student Councils at each of their schools.

Among the questions to be discussed in connection with the topic will be: what is the earliest age girls ought to begin dating; should junior high school girls date senior high school boys; what is a reasonable "deadline" for a date; and what about going steady?

Listeners are invited to phone in questions, while the program is in progress, and to direct them to any of the young panelists.

Program topic for Sunday, Nov. 15, will be "Is Youth Given Too Much Freedom?"

EXECUTION STAYED

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Supreme Court has stayed the execution of Russell Muskus, scheduled to die in the electric chair Nov. 10, until Dec. 18 to permit his appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court. Muskus, 31, of Kankakee, Ill., was convicted of the necktie strangling of George J. LeMasters, 43, of New Philadelphia, Dec. 2, 1950.

"How Will You Have It — Medium, Well Done, or Rare?"

Even though our waiters may be serving an old customer, they always ask, "medium, well done, or rare?" This we have observed. Steak lovers sooner or later prefer a rare steak. We give them terrific heat quickly, and sear them beautifully on both sides which tends to keep all the juice of the meat inside the steak. If you have never tried one of our special steaks—rare—it's worth considering.

Colorful Show To Be Repeated Tonight

Capacity Audience Enjoys Fast-Stepping 'Follies'

By EDNA S. DUTTON

Fast-stepping chorus and ballet numbers, well-timed skits and tuneful meodies in the Junior Service Guild's "Follies of 1953" introduced patrons to an evening of rapid fire entertainment Thursday night at the Palace Theater.

A capacity house greeted the performers who went through their paces in a style that kept the audience applauding for "more of the same." The show will be presented tonight, with curtain time at 8:15 p.m.

THE STAGE SETTINGS were catchy, the costumes in the chorus and solo numbers varied and colorful, and if there was anything that failed to meet Director Robert Cowell's expectations it didn't show out front.

Presented in two acts, the show opened with Dick Lister as "The Uninformed Boy" and Margie Bray as "The Super Salesgirl" and Martha Moore, Ann Black, Richard Granlee and Bill Black as "passers by." The opening chorus number, "Let's Dance," brought the guys, dolls and follies show girls before the footlights and Elmer Smith em-ceed with an informal introduction assisted by "showgirls" Bobby Jones, Lois Morgan, Ann Black and Pat Norris. "Dancing in a Dream," by Virginia Griffiths and a chorus line of "Dream Girls" had Melinda Plank dancer, as "Loveliest Dream of All."

GETTING A HAND for some clever comedy were Gordon Bruun, coach, and his team, "Before the Game," Eleanor Smith and her "helpful husband," Cliff Boettcher in "A Woman's Work," and Lois Morgan, Oliver Hamilton and Charles Lipscomb for a sketch at a perfume bar.

The colorful costumes and singing and dancing of the "Trinidad Daddies," "Cuban Cuties" and "Calypso Kates" provided the setting for "Carnival in Cuba" with Martha Moore as a "man hunter" and Elmer Smith "cave man." The solo dance, "Lure of the Islands," was a hula by Barbara Thayer in a colorful costume of the Islands.

A sketch "Famous Lawyer at Home," by Richard Granlee and Martha Moore, and "Lower Basin Street," featuring Carl Breece, Ronald Breece and Jimmy Beverly as "The Polka Dots," together with Alinda Temple singer, and "The Mobsters," "Molls" and "Midninettes," closed the first half of the show.

"MARION SCHOOL for Delinquent Boys" was the setting for the opening of the second part of the show. "There's Nothing Like a Dame," sung by the "boys," brought a chorus line of "innocent girls" out of the wings.

A husband and wife sketch, "Order for the Day," was by Bill Black and wife Ann, and the "Marion Rockettes," with Joyce Weaver, Dolores Hough and Alinda Temple as songstresses, took over for "On the Town," and a song by "A couple of Swells" featured Ann Eikenbary and Director Cowell who was a stand-in for Bud Mathiot billed on the program.

A sketch "Nothing But the Truth," by Carla Boettcher and Pat Norris was followed by a chorus number, "Traveling Light," by a chorus of guys and dolls, a sketch, "Some Expert Advice" and "They Ought to Know," by Oliver Hamilton, Elmer Smith, Cliff Boettcher, Gordon Bruun, Dick Granlee, and Bill Black.

"She - Harems - Odd" by the chorus with Martha Moore as "The Latest Addition" also introduced the candidates for the honor of being named "sultan" of the Follies and "This Was the Follies" by the cast, rang down the curtain.

"OVERHEARD ON MARION Streets," by Susanne Terzo and Shirley Fireman, and some bits in the life of a Follies chairman by Evelyn Walter interspersed the scenes.

Songs included: "Romance," "Little Bit in Love," "Find Me a Primitive Man," "Love Me," "Hula Hands," "Getting to Know You," "Ballin' the Jack," "There's Nothing Like a Dame," "Everything I've Got," "Just One of Those Things," "Bye Bye Baby," "Diamonds are a Girl's Best Friend," "In a Persian Market" and "Getting to Know You."

Bob Paxton and his orchestra were on hand with fine support throughout and opened the show with "Tico Tico" and "Basin Street Blues."

—:—

AT THE REPEAT performance of the show tonight, the result of the voting for "sultan" will be announced.

Proceeds of the two performances will be used by the guild to carry on its work in the city and county.

Today's tabulation on the voting for "sultan" is as follows: Francis B. Huber, sponsored by the Rotary Club, 3,805; Fred Nelson, Moose Club, 3,485; Fred Warner, Lions Club, 1,528; Karl Ailing, 20-30 International, 921; Harold Fralich, Kiwanis Club, 690; Russell Simmons, Y Men's Club, 158, and Bill Luse, Junior Chamber of Commerce, 122.

Directed Verdict In $1,500 Action Favors Bucyrian

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS — A directed verdict was returned by a Crawford County Common Pleas Court jury here Thursday afternoon in favor of Gale Wenner Jr. of Bucyrus, in a $1,500 action for money brought against him by Otto Brunetti of Galion.

The directed verdict in Wenner's favor was ordered by Judge John C. Carroll after he sustained a motion for a directed verdict made by Wenner's attorneys, J. D. Sears Sr., and O. K. Bender, both of Bucyrus.

Motion for the directed verdict was made on the grounds that the evidence introduced during the trial, which began Thursday morning, established that the money allegedly owed to Brunetti by Wenner was a gambling contract and that the money was used in furtherance of a gambling enterprise. Brunetti claimed that between Feb. 24, 1949, and April 28, 1949, he made loans, totaling $3,000, to Wenner. Brunetti said $1,500 of this amount remained unpaid. Brunetti said the money was loaned to Wenner to furnish, equip and remodel Wenner's establishment, known as the Penn Supper Club in Bucyrus. Wenner contended that he had borrowed only $1,500 from Brunetti and had repaid the entire amount plus $100.

The Penn Supper Club has been closed since last spring when Mayor Frank P. Sitler and Police Chief Arthur L. Stuckert issued a ban on all types of gambling following an expose of alleged gambling conditions in Bucyrus by the Mansfield News-Journal.

Morral FFA Students Tour Baker Wood Plant

A group of Morral High School FFA student members visited the Marion plant of the Baker Wood Preserving Co. Tuesday. A. J. Bishop, instructor, was in charge of the group and arranged the trip and visit for the purpose of studying the many products of creosoted material used on farms.

H. L. Rinnert, office manager of the Marion company, conducted the tour through the plant which is considered one of the most modern pressure creosoting plants in the country. The company specializes in custom-treating lumber manufactured from farm wood lots and also handles creosoted pine poles, fence posts, and other lumber material for farm and industrial use.

Police Arrest Driver, Another Issued Citation

One motorist was arrested by Marion police yesterday and another was issued a citation to appear in Marion Municipal Court on traffic charges.

John L. Morgan Jr. 20, of Alexandria, Ind., was charged with reckless driving when arrested at 1:18 p.m. yesterday on N. Main St. He also is being held for investigation by police He was to be given a hearing in Municipal Court today on the reckless driving charge.

Mrs. Mary M. Reed of 387 Michigan Ave. was cited to appear in court today on a charge of speeding. She was stopped yesterday on Mt. Vernon Ave.

Two Injured In Accidents in Marion County

Two persons were injured in two Marion County accidents reported today by patrolmen from the Marion post. Both were injured in one-car accidents happening Thursday.

At 11:40 a.m. Thursday, Albert R. Boschian, 63, of Detroit, Mich. was injured when his pick-up truck veered off U. S. Highway 23 near the North Drive-In Theatre.

The truck went off the right side of the road as Baschian headed south, swerved across to the other side of the highway, and went into fencing at the treatre. The truck rolled over and tore up some fencing and a bush owned by the theater.

Fred Thacker, theater manager, called a Hughes ambulance which took Boschian to City Hospital where he was treated for lacerations of the head, a bruised left shoulder, and shock. The truck was demolished.

Robert L. Redmon, 18, of Prospect was the other injured motorist. He received a bruised and twisted left ankle but was not treated. His car left the road on County Road 120, about one mile east of Newman's Bridge at 3:15 p.m. Thursday.

Redmon's car went off the right side of the road as he was headed north. The car tore up some fencing and a post owned by John W. Jones of near Prospect, and then struck two trees owned by Della Almendinger, also of near Prospect

The car was badly damaged on the entire front end and right side and had to be towed from the scene.

Three City Accidents

No injuries were reported in three minor accidents investigated by city police during the last 24 hours.

A collision at an alley intersection near Chivington's Auto Sales garage on N. Main St. at 1:22 p.m yesterday caused considerable damage to cars driven by Alfred M. Boggess, 36, of near Marion and Dale Eaches, 32, of 389 Milburn Ave., police said. Eaches was driving east in one alley and Boggess north in the other, police reported

Cars driven by Marion G Hartley, 25, of 410 Jefferson St. and Herbert Lyles, 52 of 1014 W Center St. were damaged in a mishap in the 600 block on W. Center St. at 4 50 p.m. yesterday.

The right front fender of a car driven by Paul H. LongLorth, 41, of 499 Reed Ave. was damaged in an accident on W. Center St. near Main St. at 9:15 last night involving another car driven by John L Harbin, 18, of 356 Owens St. Harbin's car was not damaged.

Australia is preparing a permanent, manned scientific station on the Antarctic Continent.

Ohio Methodist Bishop Gives Report on Conditions in Korea

Several carloads of members from Methodist Churches in Marion and the county made up a large delegation joining others from throughout the Lima District in a mass meeing at Grace Methodist Church in Lima Thursday night.

Bishop Hazen G. Werner of the Ohio Area, who returned recently from the Far East, told of the needs of the people of Korea, both material and spiritual, and called for assistance from the church people of Ohio to meet those needs.

Theme for the rally was "Your Brother Here and There." This was part of the total program of American Methodism known as the Advance, with emphasis on the phase of church extension at home and on the mission fields for the present quadrennium. Bishop and Mrs. Werner spent six weeks visiting Japan, Formosa, and Korea.

Many Attend Dinner

Many from here attended the dinner preceding the mass meeting and saw colored slide views of Korea and countryside taken on the trip of the bishop and his wife, and shown by Mrs. Werner. Those from the local congregations were among 560 served in the dining room of Grace Church, and more than twice that number which filled the church auditorium for the meeting following. Rev. Vernon Van Buren was host pastor.

Rev. Harold F. Kellogg, superintendent of the Lima District of the Methodist Church, presided. He presented from the speaker's table Bishop Werner and Mrs. Werner, and Rev. J. Otis Young, assistant to the bishop. Introduced also were John F. Young of Columbus, director of the Ohio Methodist Information department, Miss Elaine Ballinger, church editor of The Marion Star, and Miss Phyllis Wentz and Wayne Chandler of the Lima News, guests of Rev. and Mrs. Kellogg.

In greeting the audience, Bishop Werner stated that the Lima meeting was largest of 16 similar gatherings held in different parts of the state since his return from Korea. Three more are scheduled.

The pictures shown by Mrs. Werner included views of bombed out churches and work that is being done by the Koreans with their limited means to restore them. Photographs of people of the land included groups of orphans and widows of veterans, and among the missionaries shown were Rev. William Shaw of Delaware and Mrs. Shaw, and the chapel under construction which will be a memorial to their son, William, who was killed in action in the Korean conflict.

Cites Epworth Pledge

At the meeting following, Rev. Kellogg in a statement concerning financial quotas given the various churches of the district for the Advance work, cited Epworth Church in Marion as having pledged $12,000, an amount which is $3,000 in excess of its assigned quota. He reported also that the Alger-Fairview charge in Hardin County has pledged to double its financial assignment for the Advance.

More than the need for material assistance, Korea needs "persons," Bishop Werner told his audience, and called for young people to get a vision of the need for service in the mission field. He praised fearless devotion of Korean Christians to their religion and to democracy, their gratitude for Americans' help with no bitterness for "our mistakes," and spoke in highest terms of President Rhee, who "though a stubborn man, is nearly always right." He outlined also a program of church extension in Ohio.

At the close, J. E. Simpson of Forest, district lay leader, led a pledge by the audience for full cooperation in the three-year program of reachinfg the district's share, $50,000, in the total Methodist Advance goal.

security if made public—leaving only "top secret," "secret" and "confidential."

2. Sets up a system for receiving complaints, from newsmen and others outside the government, and for checking up on the program.

3. Takes away document-classifying authority from 28 agencies, such as the American Battle Monuments Commission and the Veterans Administration.

4. Gives classifying authority to the heads only, with no power to delegate it to someone else, of 7 agencies, like the Civil Aeronautics Board and the Tennessee Valley Authority.

5. Permits the heads of other agencies, such as the Defense Department, to name an employe as classifying officer.

6. Defines what information is to be classified, how it is to be transmitted and stored, marked and, when indicated, destroyed.

Proper Balance

A White House statement said the purpose of the order is to attain "a proper balance between the need to protect information important to the defense of the United States, and the need for citizens of this democracy to know what their government is doing."

The statement added:

"The issuance of this order will revise, in a manner more in keeping with the American tradition of freedom of information, existing requirements for the safeguarding of defense information."

Eisenhower made public a proposed draft of the order last June 17. He said then it would "open the door for citizens to obtain more information about their government" without endangering national security, and he invited suggestions regarding possible changes.

Brownell said the order in final form incorporates one major change—a system of review to insure that (1) information is not improperly withheld, and that (2) security data is properly safeguarded.

On the first count, the order provides for appointment by the President of a staff member to "receive, consider, and take action upon, suggestions or complaints from nongovernmental sources relating to the operation of this order."

In Fair Condition

Smith, a veteran of 10 years on the force, was married last Saturday. He is in St. Francis Hospital where his condition was described as fair.

Police said Milton had a criminal record, as did the dead woman.

In 1950 he was arrested on a charge of criminal assault. The charge was later reduced to assault and battery and he served six months and paid a $200 fine after pleading guilty. In 1942 he was arrested on an armed robbery and burglary charge. But was placed on probation to enter military service. He was given a five-year suspended sentence for auto theft in 1945.

Mrs. Wierts had served time at the Marysville reformatory for women for forgery and issuing checks without sufficient funds. In 1947 she was fined $25 for petit larceny. A 1944 forgery charge was not pressed because of her pregnancy.

These Days

By George Sokolsky

Again a great American general, of the widest experience in Europe, Africa and Asia, Mark Clark, leaves the service of the American people. He takes a job at The Citadel, in Charleston, S. C. The Citadel is a state military college of distinction, but Mark Clark should not be there at a time like this. He belongs in the Pentagon, which needs his knowledge and experience.

SOKOLSKY

Such men as Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, Gen. Mark Clark are hard to find. Each one of these men left the service because he talked out of turn. Each one said what he believed to be right.

Result: MacArthur is selling electric razors; Wedemeyer is selling farm machinery; Clark is running a school for boys.

Curiously, each one, by the course of events, has turned out to have been right.

THE LAST episode in Clark's story was Korea. He, like MacArthur, Ridgway and Van Fleet, felt that he could have won that war and said so.

Each was stopped from winning the war by superior authorities in the Pentagon. So we lost that war, the first one that we have lost in our history. Gen. Clark signed the truce agreement. It was like signing a capitulation. No man prefers that on his record, particularly as he knew what to do to turn that war into a victory.

So Clark got out at the age of 57, after having been in the service 40 years, counting his tour at West Point.

The loss is America's. These men are highly skilled, tautly trained. The pity of it is that too many men who rise to the very top are forced out of service.

Those who are routine-watchers stay in by seniority.

Those who never stick their necks out, never have them chopped off.

WEDEMEYER, for instance, held position during World War II which involved thorough knowledge and profound thought. He planned the details of the invasion of Europe.

He took over the China campaign after Gen. George Marshall and Gen. Joseph Stillwell had made a mess of it. But he wrote the Wedemeyer Report, which, while sound, was political dynamite.

Its publication, when presented to President Truman on September 9, 1947, would have wrecked the reputations of Gen. Marshall and Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

That was not Gen. Wedemeyer's intention, but the consequences were inherent in the truth and therefore in his report.

So, they suppressed the report until August, 1949 and Wedemeyer went into the Avco Manufacturing Corporation.

His training, his experience, his knowledge is at the service of Crosley radios, not of the people of the United States.

-:-

MARK CLARK has had the same experience. He has been openly critical of policies which, as a soldier, he had to carry out.

A man of his intelligence does not enjoy being a robot, particularly when he knows what can and should be done.

The effect of these retirements and many others has been a lowering of the morale in all the services. Men have reached the conclusion that experience does not count.

After every war, the military force has to be reduced and a large number of officers have to be retired.

The younger men must be moved up so that they can gain the experience necessary for service in the next war.

-:-

WHILE PEACE is desirable, a military establishment must always live in the prospect of war. Otherwise, it would become inefficient.

Our military establishments have, in fact, suffered from a general unwillingness of the public and Congress to recognize that their function in peace is to keep ready for war.

This involves a further principle, namely, tat the next war is never fought as the past ones were. World War II introduced the atom marine, the airplane and the tank; world War II introduced the atom bomb, radar and the guided missile.

-:-

ALREADY whatever was introduced in World War II is obsolete. We and the enemy have moved far beyond anything known then.

Fresh minds are required to acquaint themselves with and to develop the new weapons and the new concepts of war.

That does not mean that we can afford to cast aside the finest intellects developed in the last war. MacArthur's genius, Wedemeyer's wisdom, and Clark's experience ought always to be available.

To cast such men aside is a profligate expenditure of valuable personnel.

Home Builders, Realtors Hear Officials of VA

GI Loan Procedures Explained by Two Regional Directors

Some 100 Marion home builders, realtors and lending institution representatives attending a dinner meeting at the Harding Hotel last night were told procedures and requirements necessary for Veterans Administration home loans.

Guest speakers were Charles H Wright, chief of the examining section and Robert B. Rieth, assistant chief of the appraisal section of the VA Regional Office at Cleveland.

Brief remarks were also made by Frank L. Warwick, president of the Marion Home Builders Association and Lowell Douce, president of the Marion Real Estate Board.

Cites Important Date

Speaking on appraisals and minimum construction requirements necessary for home loans under both the World War II and Korean GI Bills, Rieth said that Dec. 8, 1952 was an important date to remember.

Houses started before that date need meet far less stringent construction requirements than those started after that date, he said. It was on that date that the new minimum construction requirements regulations became effective, he said. The new regulation outlines in detail what is necessary in house construction before the house may be eligible for a home loan guarantee under the GI Bill, he explained.

Reith pointed out to the group that there are more than 4,000 veterans in Marion who are potential home buyers under provisions of the GI BIill.

2,140 Obtain Loans

He said VA records indicate there are 6,600 veterans in Marion County with 95 per cent of them living in Marion. Up to the present only 2,140 of these have obtained home loans under the GI Bill. The average loan was $5,700, he said.

Calling veterans a good loan risk, Rieth added that VA records reveal less than two per cent of GI loans are defaulted.

He pointed out some of the difficulties of the regional office in processing home loan guarantee applications. Chief among them is the fact that the regional office at Cleveland must cover 38 counties with a total of only 16 persons in the appraisal section.

Time-Saving Suggestion

Wright spoke on other aspects of home loan guarantees. He noted that before a loan may be guaranteed a certification must be sent to the VA office reporting the base pay of the veteran wishing a home loan. In addition, time may be saved, if the lending institution involved also obtains an employer verification and includes it with the certification and other loan application papers, he said.

He pointed out that GI home loans may now be made for the full 100 per cent of the home cost without a down payment required and may be for a 30 year term—providing lending institutions are willing to make such loans and the veterans' credit is good enough.

Prior to the talks the group was entertained by four tap dancers from Caledonia. There were Deanna Douce and Susie Caskie, who danced duets, Marjorie Lucas, and Caroll Farley.

Mrs. Goldie Swope of 328 Marion Ave. also entertained the group during the dinner hour with accordion music.

Editor Urges AEC To Ease Tight Secrecy

CHICAGO (AP)—A newspaper editor today called for an easing of the tight secrecy surrounding atomic energy on grounds that the price paid for such secrecy is "too, too high."

William P. Steven of the Minneapolis Star and Tribune said:

"A full development of the peaceful uses of atomic power inevitably demands that the secrecy clauses in the present law be eliminated."

Steven, chairman of the Freedom of Information Committee of The Associated Press Managing Editors Assn., told news executives at the annual APME meeting:

"The one greatest power source discovered by man we lock up as best we can behind a wall of secrecy—not trusting it to ourselves for fear we reveal it to someone else, not trusting our own capacities to think ahead, produce ahead and stay ahead of the nations of the world.

"How can we win the battle for democracy, for the rights of man, with tactics of nationalization, of monopoly, of secrecy?

"The answer is we cannot."

Steven told fellow editors amendments to the atomic energy act will be proposed at the next session of Congress. One amendment, he suggested, should "strike out the legal requirements of secrecy."

"The price of that secrecy by law," he said, "is too, too high."

Steven said that among the things "wrong" with atomic secrecy are these:

"Newspapers cannot inform the people.

"Public agencies and employes cannot be fairly judged.

"We cannot evaluate our defenses. We cannot know whether we are doing all that must be done to be safe.

"We stultify proper interest in civilian defense.

"We put blockades in the way of building a free world army by banning the exchange of military atomic information.

"Peacetime development of atomic energy is hamstrung . . .

"We force nationalization of the most important power source in the history of man."

Ada Man Is Sentenced In New Orleans Slaying

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Robert K. Stober, 20, of Ada, Ohio, yesterday was sentenced to life imprisonment at hard labor for the slaying of George Fremin Oct. 4, 1952. Stober's attorneys had contended he was in the midst of an epileptic seizure when he shot Fremin during an attempted liquor store holdup.

LIKENS SERMON THEME

Sermon theme at the Likens Covenant Church north of Marion Sunday morning will be "Looking to Jesus." A Harvest Home social will be held Tuesday night. Study Wednesday night will be in the fourth chapter of Mark. Plans are being made for a Harvest Festival the following Saturday when a special program of music will be given by a male quartet and brass trio from North Park College at Chicago, Ill. These groups will then be heard at the Sunday morning service the next day, the pastor, Rev. Warren W. Lindstrom, stated.

3 ATTEND CONVENTION

Not Many BURGLARS are Caught

According to the figures as compiled by the FBI, almost three fourths of all burglaries go unsolved. Not one fifth of the sneak thief losses result in an arrest. Even catching the thief doesn't assure return of the things he carries away. The one sure way to protect yourself against all such losses is by proper insurance.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

For a few cents in stamps we could have saved hundreds of millions of dollars in the past 20 years—simply by mailing all our ultra-secret weapons blueprints directly to the Kremlin. All the manpower and money spent by our counter-intelligence agencies could have been put to some practical use, like solving big city traffic problems.

KIESEL

What is more appalling than the grim fact that the Soviets got all our secrets, from sky-platforms to aerial bomb detectors to the mathematical formulae for atomic energy for airplanes—is the deadlier fact that some of the spies used some of the "independent" pro-Communist unions as fronts and that few in this country seem unduly alarmed.

I have counted at least 35 union men—officials and their lawyers—who have refused to deny espionage activity in congressional hearings.

THESE MEN today are free and active though they refused to deny association with Soviet master spies Jay Peters, Arthur Adams, Alger Hiss and Julius Rosenberg.

In the course of this cloak-and-dagger activity for the Third International, they have moved in and out of the following secret areas, as David Greenglass soon will testify before a Senate Committee.

The Rosenberg rings, which are tied in congressional and court room testimony to the old Federation of Architects, Chemists, Engineers and Technicians, had agents in the Army, Navy and Signal Corps.

They had access and walked out with bulging brief cases filled with data on the Bureau of Ordnance.

THEY WERE in a Navy cell which had the most detailed information on two of our latest battleships.

They had a military ring which worked under the following orders from Julius Rosenberg: to get information on "military equipment, any new equipment, plans, books, anything of value to the Soviet Union."

Rosenberg himself got into such classified factories as the Hugh Warner Swasey turret lathe plant in Cleveland. He had his most talented agents planted in the terrifically concentrated Ohio war industries.

They got our latest sonar anti-submarine firing devices. In the words of one Rosenberg agent: "These were particular ones which computed for missiles to be fired against submarines."

-:-

THEY PLANTED an agent in the Navy, which sent him into the GE plant at Schenectady—which counted on the Navy to screen its people.

They got our latest fire control system (gun firing).

Soviet agent Morton Sobell, now in Alcatraz, gave the Russians "devices which are part of the systems used to control, and to give equipment and to take (Electronic) intelligence and to use it in any way that is necessary for computation" in firing or handling guided missiles. Just a bagatelle.

At one point, Julius Rosenberg simply walked out of the Emerson Radio plant, where he was a government inspector, with our vital proximity fuse in his brief case.

Later, this master spy and pay-off man told David Greenglass, who told the Senate investigators the other day that Julius boasted of giving it to the Russians.

In 1947 Rosenberg disclosed to Greenglass that he had stolen the sky platform from us.

-:-

WHEN THE YOUNGER man asked what that was, Julius described it as "Some large vessel which would be suspended at a point of no gravity between the moon and the earth and as a satellite it would spin around the earth."

So the Russians have that, too. Begin to look skyward friends. They waste little time.

Rosenberg revealed that he was the agent most trusted by the Russians. He called on courier Betty Bentley for something. He knew of her. She didn't know of him, except by password.

They got into the explosive arsenal at Picatinny, N J., the Aberdeen Proving Grounds in Maryland, where they picked up the aerial bomb sight detector, and also into Oak Ridge and Los Alamos.

Finally the Soviet agents became suspicious and started running their boys out via Mexico.

-:-

IN THE FEDERAL jail at Lewisberg, Pa., Greenglass told the Senate probers that Rosenberg tried to get him out too, and when he demurred Julius said, "It can be done. One of my boys, Joel Barr, did it."

Well, Barr and his girl friend, Vivian Glassman, worked at Monmouth's secret radar labs. Barr, who is undoubtedly peeping at us from behind the Iron Curtain, was the Rosenberg link there.

So it goes. O. John Rogge, attorney for Greenglass and others who were in Soviet espionage, says:

"There still is Soviet espionage. But it's a vast jigsaw puzzle. The full story hasn't been told. My clients will cooperate and tell the authorities what they know."

That's good. Now what will the authorities do?

Fifth Freedom

By Inez Robb

Man wants but little here below, and what he wants mainly is peace and quiet. And a fat chance he has of getting even a little of that!

INEZ ROBB

It is my sincere belief that the first political party strongly to support the fifth freedom—freedom from annoyance—will win in a walk in 1956. Of course, the possibility that the public longs to be free from the annoyance of and by politicians might, in a pinch tend to nullify the foregoing statement.

These long, long thoughts have been induced recently by a series of nuisance calls that have left me scarce able to control my urge to tear the telephone out by the roots.

THE TELEHONE is a noble instrument, and Don Ameche did well to invent it. It puts man in instant touch with the ends of the earth or the bridge partner next door.

It is now an institution on a par with matrimony — people can't live with it or without it. It is as essential as love and as prone to drive people stark, raving nuts.

It is now obvious that man has to take the bitter with the better so far as the phone is concerned. The trouble is that in my bailiwick recently, there has been nothing but the bitter.

I don't know how it is in your precinct, but in mine solicitation by telephone for everything from magazine subscriptions to charitable contributions have increased a thousand fold in the past year.

THE RESULT is that I am still sitting still alone by the telephone because no one I know, no friend, no relative, ever has a chance to break through the sound barrier.

Commercial competition keeps the instrument hot, and me, too. Fools rush in where angels fear to tread and ask me, before that first humanizing cup of morning coffee, what I think of twinkle-toes soap flakes. How I love to tell 'em!

I am hauled away from the dinner table by a professional Paul Pry seeking my opinion for the whatziz poll on the state of the nation. I don't know what the state of the nation is, but I know my own — I'm fit to be tied.

-:-

INDIVIDUALS call and ask for contributions to charities of which I have never heard and of which I know nothing. And argue when I feel I should know something more about the organization than the number of its post office box.

I hang up feeling that central casting has just landed for me, as type perfect, the role of Mme. Scrooge.

I don't mind helping a likely lad through barber college with a magazine subscription or two. But I am prone to feel the boy will never make Phi Beta Kappa if he hasn't enough git-up-and-go to make the pitch and pick up the subscription money in person. But then, maybe he only wants to make money.

SO MANY pollsters call to ask what TV or radio show I am currently enjoying that I have been unable, for several years, to find time to enjoy either.

I have never yet seen Godfrey, which merely shows how far behind I have fallen in my home work.

Since the buyers' market began to develop in this country, the telephone has become the salesman's sweetheart and the handmaiden of retail merchandising. I have been offered a bargain in everything from oriental rugs to steamed clams.

And all I want—honest!—is a little peace, quiet and freedom from annoyance. The trouble is, if a woman answers, they never hang up.

Crestline Marine Veteran, 75, Lays Claim to 'Oldest' Title

A Crestline man, Charles C. Byers, has announced himself as a candidate for the title of "Oldest Living Former Marine" in the Mansfield area according to the 74th Special Infantry Company, Marine Corps Reserve, in Mansfield. A ceremony to be held during the Marine Corps birthday ball will include a presentation to the title holder.

Byers claims the title until the discovery of someone who feels more qualified and can provide proof of birth prior to Sept. 6, 1878. An interview with Byers and verification of his record disclosed that he enlisted Aug 25, 1900 at Cleveland to begin a five - year tour of duty.

Upon completion of boot training he was assigned duty with the Marine detachment aboard the USS Dixie.

During the interview Byers spoke of his patricipation in the Honduras rebellion, guarding of the Isthmus of Panama, and the Philippine insurrection He recalls vividly when Kaiser Wilhelm boarded the USS Olympia to inspect troops of foreign nations.

Byers was discharged on Sept. 22, 1905 and received a discharge certificate in scroll writing on sheepskin paper which he still retains. Upon discharge from the Marine Corps, he procurred regular employment with the New York Central and Pennsylvania Railroad Companies and remained with them for 38 years. He left his railroad position Dec. 1, 1943.

Patrolman Carries Out Orders, Chief Is Fired

ALBUQUERQUE, N M (AP)—Police Chief Paul Shaver paid a $5 fine for failing to halt at a stop sign.

The ticket was issued by Patrolman Robert Cecil Shaver said he had thought the car came to a complete stop.

"Cecil told me he had orders to warn people on that" the chief said I told him nothing doing, if I hadn't come to a complete stop he should give me a ticket.

Group Formed To Give Aid to Retarded Class

A Marion County Council of Parents and Friends for Retarded Children was formed Monday evening when a group of interested friends and parents of mentally retarded children met at the Children's Home

Elected Council president was Mrs Albert DeSimone Other officers elected were Mr. Carrol Starner, vice president, Mrs Leslie Gear recording secretary; and Cedric Draper, treasurer.

Selected to serve on the executive committee as members-at-large were Fred Gehm, one-year term; Mrs John Roy Lightner, two-year term; and Mrs. Cletus Murphy, three-year term .

Mrs. Charlotte Lister, teacher of the mentally retarded class which meets at the Children's Home, gave a summary of class activities and led those present on a tour of the classroom.

For the program Dr. Rodger Purcell, director of special education and research with the Department of Mental Hygiene, showed color slides of several mentally retarded classes in the state

Gene White, Children's Home superintendent, was chairman for the meeting. During the business session a constitution was presented and accepted, and it was decided that meetings of the group would be held the first Monday evening of each month at the Home.

Membership is open to anyone interested in mentally retarded children.

RACE STILL UNDECIDED

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—They counted the ballot from Tuesday's mayoral election in Newark again yesterday but still nobody is quite sure who won. The recount of the original tie showed Kenneth Jones, young Democratic challenger, with 4,401 votes. His former high school arithmetic teacher, Republican incumbent John W. (Pop) Swank had an even 4,400. Swank says he will confer with his party to map his next move—but he isn't conceding. Tuesday's unofficial count showed each with 4,398 votes.

New Regulations On Auto Dealers' Promised by Foley

CLEVELAND (AP) — Ohio's registrar of motor vehicles, R. E. Foley of Columbus, has promised his critics a set of regulations covering car dealers will be up for a public hearing next month. He said it should help curb sharp practices by auto traders.

Foley said the proposed regulations would be filed with the secretary of state today. He showed copies yesterday to the president of the Better Business Bureau here. Marshall A. Mott, after Mott assailed Foley's bureau for delaying issuance of the rules for 15 months.

During the afternoon session, Foley heard Mott and John L. O'Brien, president of the Akron Better Business Bureau, declare complaints they sent to Foley's office in the past brought no action.

Mott said under Foley's licensing system, dealers who lost their licenses turn up shortly with new ones. The Better Business Bureau chief said he was unable to see how a man "can be a thief on March 31 and become an honest man on April 1." The licensing year starts April 1.

Old Job as Ohio's Adjutant General Is Open to Kreber

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Maj. Gen. Leo M. Kreber of Columbus, commanding general of the 37th Infantry Division at Camp Polk, La., can have back his old post as Ohio adjutant general if he wants it, Gov. Frank J. Lausche indicated Thursday.

Asked about reports Kreber will resume his role as adjutant general early next year, Lausche told a newsman:

"It has always been my policy that when an individual is taken from a peacetime job and called to war, his job when he returns should be available to him. He has a moral right to it."

Albert B. Henderson was appointed adjutant general by Lausche Dec. 17, 1951, when Kreber went to Camp Polk upon the federalization of the Ohio National Guard unit.

Kreber is due for release from his Camp Polk post in January.

NLRB Sets Election

CINCINNATI (AP)—The NLRB today set Nov. 12 for an election at Mokry Tesmer, Inc., Middletown, on the question of a collective bargaining representative.

Lodge No. 1850, International Assn. of Machinists, AFL., has petitioned for the right to represent 30 production and maintenance workers.

BOY HIT BY CAR, DIES

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A truck killed James Jordan III, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs James M. Jordan Jr., near his Columbus home Wednesday.

Senator Rips Censorship of Korean News

Army Charged With Interfering, Cites Newsman's Complaint

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen Smathers (D—Fla) protested bitterly to the Pentagon today against what he termed "intolerable interference" by the Army with newsmen's efforts to report the news from Korea.

He wrote Secretary of Defense Wilson urging a swift crackdown on "putrefying" news censorship by the military and suggested that some eager-beaver censors are "more officious than efficient."

There was no immediate comment from the Pentagon.

Smathers, who made the letter public, said in an interview his protest stemmed from dispatches earlier this week by John Randolph, Associated Press correspondent in Korea. Several other senators had said in previous interviews that Randolph's account raised disturbing questions.

Randolph reported increasing "political" censorship of the news and said some facts not related to security had been suppressed. Among other things, Randolph said the military has refused to clear the true story of an Allied plane which bombed and strafed U. S. soldiers in the field last January, killing 14 men.

Randolph said there has been growing double censorship the type in which official censors check reporters' stories to make sure they contain nothing harmful to security, and a second censorship by public information officers who, he said, suppress unpleasant facts having no bearing on security.

PTA GROUP TO MEET

School Zone Safety Signs Presented City

Marion's school zones traffic safety program took another step foreward yesterday and Wednesday with the placing of 40 "drive slow" signs in the streets near the schools.

Donated to the city by the Marion bottling plant of the Coca-Cola Co., the signs stand five feet high and are replicas of a policeman with his right hand raised in the traditional slow down signal. Across the chest of the "policeman" is a sign bearing the words "Drive Slow, School Zone."

Constructed of steel, the signs are mounted on a heavy metal base and are placed in the center of streets near school buildings.

Members of the school safety patrol at each school will be responsible for placing the signs in the streets at the close of school each day, Police Chief Coon said.

Presentation of the signs was made to the city at ceremonies held at the Coca-Cola Bottling Plant on N. Main St. Monday afternoon.

Plant Manager Robert F. Williams made the formal presentation. Mayor Harold F. Robinson accepted them on behalf of Marion residents. Others attending included Safety-Service Director Ralph Forest, Superintendent of Schools Lester L. Dickey, and a group of Pearl Street School teachers and pupils who were on a tour of the bottling plant just previous to the presentation ceremony.

When Napoleon invaded Portugal in 1807, the government of the country was moved to Brazil.

IN THE SERVICE

Ronald Bruce Osborn, seaman apprentice, USN, of Marion is taking the Assault Boat Coxswain course of the Amphibious Training Command, U. S. Atlantic Fleet, at the U. S. Naval Amphibious Base at Little Creek, Va. It trains personnel in assault boat handling and upkeep, rules of the road, boat etiquette, and cargo and boat handling alongside ships. Osborn, son of Mrs. Joseph Montroy of 599 Lee St., entered the Navy last June 16 and took his boot training at Bainbridge, Md. He attended State Street Junior High School and was employed at the Danner Buick Co. prior to entering the service. Osborn is regularly stationed on the attack cargo ship USS Oglethorpe.

Official Count Gives Vollrath Bucyrus Post

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS — C. Victor Vollrath, fourth ward councilman here since 1948, will keep his post two more years, Crawford County Board of Elections officials announced here today. Vollrath, an attorney and a Republican leader, was tied with Ralph White, Democrat and Cobey Corp. official, at 314 votes when the unofficial count was completed Tuesday night. The official count gave Vollrath, 318, against White's 315.

Edging out his opponent is "old stuff" to Vollrath. In 1947, he was elected by a two-vote margin; in 1949, the margin was increased to seven votes and two years ago he was re-elected by a 37 vote lead.

Amos Koons, Erie Dispatcher Here Since 1912, Retires

Amos H. Koons, 65, of 148 S. Vine St. has retired as train dispatcher for the Erie Railroad here, it was announced today by R. H. Lewis, division superintendent.

His retirement marked the end of 50 years of association with the Erie. Koons first started work on the Erie in 1903 as a section laborer at Ontario, near Galion.

He began duties as a telegraph operator in 1909 at Galion and came here when Erie headquarters was moved to Marion from Galion in March, 1912. Koons has been dispatcher here since then with the exception of two years. From 1914-1916, he was engine dispatcher at the Erie roundhouse for a year and fireman on the railroad for a year.

An ardent sportsman, Koons plans to operate his summer resort on Lake Erie as his principal activity. He has several cottages there at Zellers Beach on Marblehead peninsula on Sandusky Bay.

A native of Ontario, Koons and his wife, the former Miss Vera Marguerite Sells of Marion, have resided at their present address for the past 33 years. They have a daughter, Mrs. W. H. Bonsel, who resides at 125 Wallace St.

L. M. Lessley of Pennsylvania Ave., an extra dispatcher, has been assigned to Koons' position.

New Record for Tonnage Through Soo Locks Set

SAULTE STE. MARIE, Mich. (AP)—A Cleveland freighter steamed through here with a load of rye Wednesday and broke the Soo Locks' record for one-season tonnage.

The Denmark, owned by Great Lakes Steamship Co., was hauling 302,000 bushels or about 6,600 gross tons of grain. Her passage brought to 120,206,088 gross tons the amount of cargoe moved through the locks this season.

Court Lists $6,814 In Fines and Costs

Some $6,814 was collected from fines, costs, bond forfeitures and other income of Marion Municipal Court during October.

In a monthly report of disbursement of court funds issued today by Mrs. Clara Fleck, clerk, it was noted that a total of $5,721 was paid to the city treasury.

Of this amount, $4,760 collected in the criminal division of the court and $92 collected in the civil division were assigned to the general fund.

The remaining $868 was the city's half-share of fines, costs and bond forfeitures from state highway patrol cases and is earmarked for use in the city's street repair and maintenance program.

The other half share, or $868 also, was paid to the state treasurer, $187 was paid to the Marion County treasury, and $39 was paid to the Marion County sheriff's office in turn-key and mileage feed.

Kansas City Man Found Stuck Fast in Pool of Tar

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—A 67-year-old man was found in an abandoned quarry yesterday, stuck fast to a patch of tar. It took two men to pry him loose.

Police identified the victim as Otis Hull of Kansas City. They said he was unable to give a coherent account of his misadventure.

Hull, suffering from pneumonia and exposure—he evidently was trapped overnight — was hospitalized. Physicians said his condition was poor.

Subway Under Cleveland Step Nearer Reality

Dream of 50 Years To Come True; Voters Approve Huge Project

CLEVELAND (AP) — A subway under downtown Cleveland — dreamed of by city planners for a half century—is within a few years of becoming a reality because of Tuesday's election.

Next Tuesday the first meeting will be held to chart the way for the 35-million-dollar project Cuyahoga County voters approved by a nearly 2-1 margin.

It will be at least a year—probably longer—before heavy work starts on the downtown subway loop. Among the preparatory jobs are:

1. A court test to make sure the county legally can operate the subway in the heart of the city without an okay from the courts to dispel any doubts, the 35-year, general-obligation bonds to finance the project could not be marketed.

2. A final decision on the route, which as now proposed would be an oval with four stopping places—one at Union Terminal on Public Square, another at Superior and E. Ninth street, a third at E. 13th street near Playhouse Square, and a fourth at the Huron-Prospect intersection.

3. Extensive engineering studies, including test borings, moving of a maze of underground utility facilities, materials, equipment, and other problems. The preliminary plan is to have the subway 40 feet below the street level.

4. Method of handling financing and marketing bonds bearing an estimated 2¾ per cent interest. No bonds will be issued until agreements are reached with the municipally owned Cleveland Transit System and the Shaker Heights Rapid Transit System on the use of the facility.

Cars from the suburban Shaker Heights Rapid, long in operation, and from the CTS east-west rapid line, now under construction, would be funneled into the subway loop. They would disgorge their passenger loads along the proposed 2½-mile loop which would have estimated capacity for 250 rapid transit cars.

Dinah Shore Loses Her Voice, Gets Laryngitis

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Dinah Shore has lost her voice.

This happened yesterday two hours before she was scheduled to appear on NBC's national television hookup.

Her doctor says she is suffering from laryngitis and will be silent for at least three days.

Her guest, Johnny Desmond, did all the singing on the show. Miss Shore appeared, occasionally holding up signs reading, "Hi," "I can't talk."

MARION MAN ARRESTED

A Marion County man was apprehended Thursday afternoon by the sheriff's office on a bad check warrant issued in Logan County. James W. France, 62, of Fairground St. was later released to the custody of Logan County authorities.

Patrolmen Report One Area Accident

One accident in Union County was reported today by highway patrolmen from the Marion post. It happened this morning on a Union County road about five miles west of State Route 37.

Two drivers, Howard Reese, 40, and Roy H. Reese, 30, both of near Peoria, O., were headed west on the county road with Howard Reese in front. Patrolmen did not know if the drivers were related.

When the first car, stopped to make a left turn onto another road, it was struck in the rear by the second.

Extensive damage was done to both vehicles. Both motorists were arrested, Howard Reese for failing to signal a turn and Roy Reese for following too closely. The two drivers were ordered to appear before Mayor Nelson Blue of Richwood Saturday afternoon.

School Break-In, Theft of Steel Iron Reported to Police

A break-in at the Robert A. Taft Junior High School, in which nothing was taken, and the theft of some sheet iron from the rear of the Marion Lumber Co. on Oak St. were reported today by Marion police.

Some 200 pounds of sheet iron and two pieces of plate steel worth a total of $22 and owned by Ned Gates Jr. of 369 Owens St was stolen from the rear of the lumber company sometime before 5:17 p.m. yesterday when Gates discovered it missing.

He reported the theft to police at that time and later reported he located the missing iron and steel at a local junk yard.

Earlier yesterday, at 7:24 a.m., Noman Fogt, principal of the junior high school, reported someone broke into the school building on Wednesday night.

Police investigated the break-in yesterday and reported entrance was gained through the boiler room of the building. Police Chief Tom Coon said the office was ransacked but apparently nothing was taken.

He said finger prints were obtained which may lead to the identity of the person or persons who broke into the school.

Consultant to Jet, Ebony Magazines Talks to Local Club

LeRoy W. Jeffries, consultant to the publisher of Ebony and Jet, national Negro magazines, spoke on the Negro market at a meeting of the Sales Ad Club Wednesday at Hotel Harding. About 35 members were present.

Jeffries, a member of the Columbia University faculty, pointed out that the Negro market has a yearly potential spending power of 15 million dollars. He added that although this is a class market, it is above the national average in spending power.

Jeffries is also an industrial relation executive of the National Urban League of New York City, a job analyst and consultant for the Arma Co. of Brooklyn, and manager of the New York State Division of Placement and Unemployment.

Guests at the meeting were Jerry Davis, Robert Haldeman, Paul Kohler and Stewart Norris, all of Marion.

The next meeting is scheduled for Dec. 2 and will feature direct mail advertising.

Marion Woman's Brother Injured in Jet Airplane Crash

Major Albert D. Simmons, USAF brother of Mrs. John S. Pickerel of 400 S. Grand Ave., was seriously injured Wednesday evening when a jet fighter he was piloting crashed at Egland AFB, in Florida.

He suffered paralysis from the waist down and multiple fractures of the back and both ankles. Mrs. Pickerel reported this morning that physicians at Maxwell AFB, Ala., where he is in the base hospital, hold great hope for his recovery. She added that they feel the paralysis may be only temporary.

Major Simmons, who was the first jet pilot to fly both the Pacific and Atlantic Oceans, just returned from a year's service in Korea where he was awarded the Bronze Star for heroism. He also holds the Air Medal, the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Purple Heart from World War II.

Simmons, who is 33, entered the service in 1940 and went through air cadet school with Mr. Pickerel.

Few details of the crash are known by the family in Marion, but it is believed he was flying an F-84 at the time.

At the time of the accident, Major Simmons was preparing to return to his home base, Turner AFB, Ga. He was a member of the 309th Strategic Fighter Squadron at Turner and was assigned to the 3200th Fighter Test Squadron at Egland.

Man Received Stolen Watch, Police Charge

A Mansfield man was held in the Marion city prison today charged with receiving and concealing a wrist watch from Carroll's Jewelry Store on W. Center St. during a burglary of the store April 6, 1952.

Fred Little, 29, was arrested in Mansfield at 2:52 p.m. yesterday on a warrant signed by Marion Police Captain Justin Cornely. The warrant charges Little received the stolen watch valued at $71.50, had concealed it while knowing the watch to be stolen.

Police Chief Tom Coon said today that Little is also being held for further investigation and that police are continuing their investigation of other aspects of the burglary. He added that the watch was only a small part of the loot taken from the jewelry store in the burglary.

Tax Receipts Down in Marion County

Sales tax receipts in Marion County for the week ending Oct. 24 were below the receipts for the same period in 1952. This was in contrast to the figures over the rest of the state which were $243,395.24 higher than for the same week last year.

In the county, $17,997.79 was collected in prepaid sales tax during the week ending Oct. 24. In the same period last year, $22,747.54 was collected.

Receipts here for the entire period from July 1, to Oct. 24, show an increase of $36,000 over the same period a year ago. So far, $331,893.65 has been collected. Last year's total from July 1 to Oct. 24 was $295,634.43.

PROSPECT SERVICE SET

"Christ's Gift of Eternal Life" will be the sermon subject for worship service Sunday morning at St. Paul Lutheran Church at Prospect. Wednesday night, the Luther League will meet at the Richard Hansen Home. Taking part will be Roberta Roberts, Wayne Seiter and Marilyn Wood. A report of the nominating committee will be heard. The Missionary Aid Society will meet Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Virgil Lowe as hostess. Delegates' reports on the Ohio District Women's Missionary Federation convention at Cincinnati will be given. In any kind of weather, Ice Cream can be your best--and most easily prepared--treat!

Keep a half-gallon of Borden's handy at home!

Waffles with Ice Cream

Serve a dip of vanilla ice cream atop a hot waffle . . . and add jam or fresh-frozen fruit if you like. Wonderful both for breakfast and for midnight lunches! Just different enough to be exciting.

Ice Cream Snowball

Form ice cream into balls (easy if you have a dipper) and roll in shredded coconut. Put two tablespoons of chocolate sauce in a small dish. Set the coconut-ice cream ball in the center. This one is always a favorite at parties!

There's no closed season on these refreshing drinks!

Good any time of year is the Strawberry-Orange Frosted, shown at the right. For each serving, use two big scoops of Strawberry Ice Cream (or vanilla if you prefer) and one cup of fresh or frozen orange juice. Blend with egg beater or mixer. Serve in a tall glass with an orange slice. And as for sodas, the possibilities are endless. Use vanilla ice cream, your favorite fruit or chocolate syrup, and fill the glass with sparkling water. Or, even simpler, just ice cream and your favorite soft drink. You'll find teen-agers really go for sodas "made at home."

West Rebuffed

Note From Russia Chills Hopes of Peace Progress

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — The cold blast from Moscow has frozen any hope that things might be different soon. In less than a year the Russians have made a full turn of the wheel. The world is where it was when Stalin died.

The Kremlin put it there by rebuffing the West's bid for a foreign ministers conference. Where the world was and is can be said simply: two armed camps, more arming ahead, no peace in sight.

Stolid Stalin, set in his ways, had one policy: push. He pursued it, like a man obsessed.

Between the end of World War II and the beginning of Korea, he pushed where he could.

The Berlin blockade, the threat to Turkey and Greece, the Communist seizure of Czechoslovakia, stony Russian stubbornness against agreements in the United Nations and in other East-West meetings.

What the Western nations were slow in seeing was that it is in the nature of a wolf to be earnest, that what Stalin wanted was fresh meat and they were it.

When they finally saw it, they formed an alliance against Stalin, which was what he didn't want. But once allied, they sauntered leisurely toward rearmament, as if time, which meant so much to Stalin, meant nothing to them.

By sweet-talk tactics Stalin might have deluded the West and split the alliance, perhaps softened Western Europe for a crushing blow of his paw later.

Stalin did the opposite—he let Korea happen—possibly because he had contempt for anything the West could do or because he was too old, too unimaginative to think of a shift, or too arrogant to believe he could be wrong.

Korea did the trick for the West. It pulled the new Allies together, in shock, fight and anger. The West stopped the Communist aggression in Korea and really began to rearm.

For the remaining 2½ years of his life Stalin seemed incapable of a new idea, while the West grew stronger. There was no dealing with him.

He left his successor, Georgi Malenkov, a gruesome legacy: a West far better able to defend itself than before Korea. At once the new Kremlin masters tried a shift.

They talked of the possibility of peace. This was sweet music to the ears of the West Europeans, weakened by two World Wars and staggering under the expense of rearming to ward off a third.

At one stroke Malenkov softened the West. Disagreements among the Allies appeared. America didn't go for the Russian bait, but Europe did.

President Eisenhower said sure he'd talk peace with Malenkov, provided Malenkov first showed by deeds he meant it. British Prime Minister Churchill offered to settle for less.

Sir Winston suggested a meeting between him, Eisenhower, Malenkov and French Premier Laniel. Some good might come of it, Sir Winston said. That he represented wide West European yearning for peace—peace somehow—could be judged from the response he got there.

Eisenhower still said no. Malenkov said nothing. It was all Russian duck soup for him if he could get the Allies scrapping among themselves by mumbling about peace.

But what of the man in the street, here and abroad?

All he could wonder was, do the Russians really want peace?

To answer him and test the Russians, the Western diplomats last July proposed a foreign ministers meeting to consider world questions, including German unification and an Austrian peace treaty. The man in the street waited and wondered. West European armament slowed down.

This week the Russians, in effect, said no. Churchill re-examined his thinking about a talk with Malenkov and said maybe no good would come of it after all.

The Kremlin rejection could not help but knit the West closer than it has been since Stalin died. Malenkov apparently has abandoned the peace talk tactics to stand stubborn and stolid like Stalin.

TO PRESIDE AT TRIAL. U. S. District Judge Albert L. Reeves will preside at the trial of Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady and Carl Auston Hall, the confessed kidnapers of six-year-old Bobby Greenlease. He is pictured in his chambers in Kansas City, Mo. Although Judge Reeves could have assessed a penalty of life imprisonment after the pair entered a plea of guilty, he ordered them to stand trial Nov. 16. The jury, if it chooses, may recommend a sentence of death.

Harold McMillen New Chairman of Central Soya Co.

Harold W. McMillen, 47, was elected chairman of the board of directors of Central Soya Company, Inc., at its annual meeting Wednesday. He succeeds his father, Dale McMillen, who will continue to serve as a director and chairman of the finance and development committee. The McMillen Feed mills plant in Marion is operated by Central Soya.

A director of the company since its incorporation in 1934, Harold W. McMillen was elected vice president in charge of soybean oil sales and specialty products in 1945. A year later he was named director of sales for McMillen Feed Mills division of Central Soya Company, and in that capacity was responsible for company-wide sales and distribution of Master Mix livestock feeds. In 1950 he was elected to the office of executive vice president.

As chairman of the board, McMillen will continue his active interest in all management and sales functions as well as assuming responsibility for study and formulation of the company's general business policies.

He is a director and vice president of the McMillen Foundation, Inc., and has been president of McMillen Home Building Corp. since 1940. He was president of Central Sugar Co. at Decatur, Ind. from 1939 until 1945.

No one has been named to succeed him as executive vice president.

Railway Group Tours Two Plants in Marion

Members of the American Railway Engineers' Association Committee No. 3 of the American Wood Preservers Association were in Marion recently to tour the creosoting plant of the Baker Wood Preserving Co.

P. D. Brentlinger, stationed in Philadelphia, Pa., with the Pennsylvania Railroad, is chairman of this committee and was in charge of the group. It is composed of representatives from the main railroads in the United States and Canada. About 30 men were present for the visit and inspection of railroad materials stored at the Baker plant.

J. C. English, vice president and general superintendent of the Marion plant, conducted the tour after which the group attended a luncheon at Hotel Harding. In the afternoon they visited the Marion Industries plant for an inspection of a new laminated oak flooring recently installed.

Court Refuses Dismissal Plea In Liquor Case

A motion seeking to have dismissed charges of state liquor law violations against three Marionites was overruled by Municipal Judge W. Dexter Hazen yesterday.

The motion was filed Oct. 15 by Attorneys John Watters and Paul Simpson, representing the defendants, who claimed the charges placed their clients in double jeopardy.

Actually the motion is called "a plea in bar." It claimed that because similar charges against the defendants were previously dismissed and no new evidence was introduced the new charges should also be dismissed.

In overruling the motion, Judge Hazen said he feels the defendents were not placed in double jeopardy because they were never brought to trial.

These were filed following a raid on the Moose Club lodge rooms by state liquor agents and city police in August. Following several postponements of an arraignment the defendants were arraigned on Sept. 29 at which time Judge Hazen dismissed the charges.

A few days later on Oct. 9 Joseph Patrick McGary, 40, of 178 Patten St., Reba D. Darby of 416 S. Prospect St. and Donald E. Bassler, 23, of 474 Silver St. were all arrested on new charges filed against them by Lawrence Lucius, state liquor agent.

The last set of warrants charged McGary with being the keeper of a place where high-powered beer and whiskey were sold in violation of state law and Bassler and Darby with selling high powered beer and whiskey illegally.

Subsequently, Watters and Simpson filed the motion and no further action was taken until yesterday. After overruling the motion Judge Hazen set the trial date for Nov. 24.

British Visitor Finds Texas Mighty Big State

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — A visitor from London learned something about Texas distances and Texas weather yesterday.

It took Mrs. Regi Bauman longer to fly from Dallas to Lubbock than it took her to get from London to New York. The reason, of all things—fog.

Mrs. Bauman left Dallas for Lubbock at 9 a.m. The plane reached Lubbock at 11:40 p.m. but couldn't land at the fog-covered city. It took refuge at Wichita Falls.

Mrs. Bauman then flew from Wichita Falls to Hobbs, N. M., and took a bus to Lubbock, arriving 11 hours after she left Dallas.

The trip from London to New York required 10 hours.

MAYOR MAY STAY ON

LIMA, Ohio (AP) — Although the Lima city charter says the mayor shall take office ont he first Monday after his election, the city's retiring mayor, Stanley A. Welker, may remain in office past the deadline. Two candidates to succeed him were only 90 votes apart in Tuesday's election and the county election board has asked Welker to continue in office until a certificate of election can be issued.

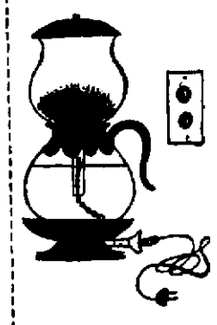
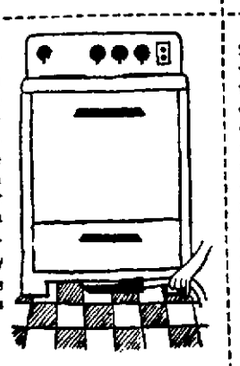
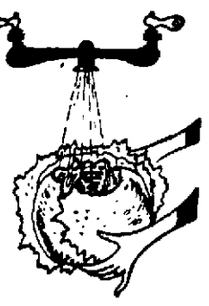
How to take the work out of housework

by JOAN GILES

SEWING MACHINE NEEDLE WON'T STICK when sewing plastic materials if you sew a strip of waxed paper into the seam. When finished, tear paper off, seam will be perfect.
(You can use your sewing machine for five hours for only a penny's worth of electricity!)


SAVE MINUTES IN THE MORNING by getting your electric coffeemaker ready for breakfast the night before. Measure coffee and water into coffeemaker, place it conveniently near electric outlet.
(For less than two cents worth of electricity, you can make the morning coffee for a week!)
TO GET OUT DUST from under range and refrigerator, use the crevice nozzle of your vacuum cleaner. Refrigerator works more efficiently, too, if you keep cooling coils or grille dust-free with upholstery attachment.
(One whole hour of vacuum cleaning costs only half-a-cent in electricity!)


SALADS ARE EASY when you separate lettuce leaves by cutting out core, then holding cut end under running water. Leaves pull off without tearing. Shake out water, wrap and place in refrigerator.
(Your electric refrigerator will keep salad greens and other foods fresh for just a few pennies' worth of electricity a day!)



TO DAMPEN CLOTHES QUICKLY, place in plastic bag add a cup of water. Shake thoroughly, let stand a few minutes. Clothes will be evenly dampened, ready to iron.
(An electric ironer will do the whole week's ironing for just a few pennies' worth of electricity!)

IF WAFFLES STICK the recipe you are using may not call for enough fat. Try adding one or two tablespoons of melted fat or salad oil to the batter.
(Waffles and ice cream make a delicious dessert. You can bake seven waffles for only a penny in electricity!)

Dividend Payments Up

Stockholders Doing Well This Year, Survey Shows

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—How well is the shareholder in American business firm's doing? How big is his share in the corporate earnings which make such pleasant reading these days?

In dollars he is doing all right. Dividend payments are running ahead of last year by around five per cent, and the total for 1953 is expected to set a new high mark.

But as a share of earnings, dividend payments aren't quite as big percentagewise as they were last year, or in three other of the postwar years.

The President's Council of Economic Advisers estimates holders of corporate stocks will receive in dividends about 45 per cent of the net profit after taxes that the nation's corporations will make this year. The companies will keep 55 per cent of the earnings in the business. Last year the shareholders got 49 per cent of the earnings.

For the eight postwar years as a whole American corporations have paid out in dividends only 42 per cent of their net income, the department of Commerce reports. In the prewar years of 1936-1940, they paid out 89 per cent of earnings to the shareholders.

What have the corporations done with the 58 per cent of earnings they have retained since the war? Well, for one thing, in the eight years they have spent 150 billion dollars in building new plants and modernizing equipment. Some of those billions came from retained earnings, the rest from borrowing and from issuing new securities.

Retention of earnings in the business reached a peak in 1947 and 1948 when 65 per cent of profits were plowed back into the companies.

Total corporate earnings this year are expected to be exceeded only by those in 1948 and 1950, but the shareholders are expected to do better this year, both in dollar volume and share of profits, than in the two earlier years.

And the percentage of earnings paid out in dividends may rise higher next year, if the plant expansion program tapers off as expected, leaving corporate diectors with less need to retain such large portions of earnings.

All of this, of course, applies to corporations as a whole. Individual companies may not adhere to the average Airlines, for example, next year will have large deliveries of new planes to be paid for, and will be looking for cash.

How owners of common stocks are faring this year is shown today by a report of the New York Stock Exchange in the November issue of its magazine, the Exchange. There are 1,066 common stocks listed on the big board and 945 of them paid one or more cash dividends during the first nine months of the year.

Shareholders got a total of $4,140,702,950 in cash. This topped dividend payments in the first nine months of 1952 by 4.2 per cent. It also set a new record for nine months payments. It was the first time in the stock exchange's history that payments hit a four billion dollar pace in the first nine months.

Bible Words to Live by

PSALM 37:1 — "Fret not thyself because of evildoers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity."

* * *

Life is so constructed in certain areas that it appears that that which should be losing is winning, and that which should be winning is losing. Sin is one of the forces in life that appears to be winning if viewed from a short-term basis.

We have a tendency to fret when we see others doing things which we have been taught are wrong and apparently enjoying good health, success, and money. We forget that these things are transient, belong to one one day and another the next. What counts is the permanent values of life. This verse gives me a lift when I am tempted. I know deep down inside that it is true.

Radio and Television

Carmen in Color

The addition of color to NBC-TV's broadcast of "Carmen" added, I should say, about 50 per cent to its effectiveness. I expect there'll come a time when we'll all take color television for granted but in these early days it is something of an electronic wonder child and, if there was any of the motley group of curiosity seekers who piled into the Center Theater to see "Carmen" in color who did not come away impressed, I have yet to meet them.

J. CROSBY

RCA's color TV system can—if the producers and engineers have a mind to — knock your eye out with its brilliance. Wisely, they decided not to. "Carmen" was presented for the most part in sober hues — orange reds, soft blues, pale yellows and the like. Only at the end, when Carmen is in Seville did the color people cut loose and, even here, they didn't cut loose all the way. The idea, I expect, was to present an opera—not a color frenzy. Very sensible.

THE BIZET OPERA, opening presentation of NBC Television Opera Theater's season, was far and away the most ambitious thing yet to be broadcast in color. Some formidable problems had to be licked. For one thing, the Colonial Theater, from which it was broadcast, has a stage which is but a fraction of the size of the Metropolitan Opera's. For another, color cameras are not nearly so wieldly as black and white ones.

Consequently, much of the panoply of "Carmen," so striking in the new presentation at the Metropolitan, simply couldn't be transferred to TV. The crowd scenes in the first act and in the last were confined to a very few people. "Carmen" was made into a very intimate opera which didn't, I felt, do it much harm. There were few tricky camera shots, the principals being shot mostly from the waist up in straight head-on shots.

EVEN WITHIN THESE limitations, though, it was an immensely vivid and arresting experience. Color TV is still a long ways from the reach of most of us. The first color TV sets are going to be mighty expensive (from $750 to $1,000, probably closer to the latter than the former) and there will be few on the market for a long time to come. (Maybe 50,000 by the end of next year.)

Still, those who sample color television, are going to get mighty restive with their old black and white sets. While Technicolor has never pushed black and white movie-making off the market, I doubt that the same parallel holds good for color TV. Within a very few years, black and white may well be obsolescent.

THE OPERA, which, incidentally, was called "Scenes From Carmen," rather than "Carmen," opens with Don Jose in prison, pretty much like the original Prosper Merrimee story. As Carmen, Vera Bryner was a dark - eyed, tasty mixture of passion and evil but her voice was a little lightweight for that tumultuous role, a criticism that might also be directed at Robert Rounseville who played Don Jose.

As is the custom on the NBC Opera Theater, the opera was given in English, a sensible idea. This particular version was a collaborative effort of the NBC opera department and was a fairly straightforward, almost prosy job of translation. English, of course, sheds the cold light of coherence on passages that make some opera lovers wince. I'm not among them.

The opera, of course, was broadcast to most of the country in black and white. My friends tell me it was pretty special in monochrome, too, the images having a softness and depth which is unusual in ordinary black and white transmission.

We are altogether too accustomed to electronic wonders these days but there's no avoiding the fact that "Carmen" in color is a magnificent feat of technology and showmanship.

Typical Homemaker Is Named by Girls' Clubs

BOSTON (AP)—Pretty Kathy Szczebak, 12, of Springfield has been chosen the nation's "Typical Young Homemaker of the Year" and was cited last night at a dinner she did not have to cook herself.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brownlas Szczebak, who both work, Kathy usually cooks the family dinner. She also prepares breakfast for herself and her sister Barbara, 9.

Kathy was picked for the honor by the Girls Clubs of America from a field of more than 4,000 members in the 48 states.

NO CARDINALS DIE

VATICAN CITY (AP)—For the first time since 1922 the Pontifical Mass held annually on Nov. 5 for Cardinals who died during the preceding 12 months was not held. The reason: No Cardinals have died.

2 Oklahoma Prisoners Give Sheriff Tough Time

ENID, Okla. (AP)—A couple of determined prisoners were scheduled to leave the Garfield County Jail for the state penitentiary to serve auto theft sentences today, but not before they gave Sheriff Lelon Coyle a few sleepless nights.

Sunday, Coyle discovered one bar to their cell sawed through and another started on. He confiscated a hacksaw blade.

Monday he shook the pair down to play safe and confiscated another hacksaw blade.

Tuesday he found them sawing on a long chain barring their cell door and confiscated a third blade.

Wednesday, a search produced still another blade.

The prisoners were sentenced yesterday.

Patrol's Record Good

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP)—How effective is the work of school boy safety patrols in Albuquerque?

The sheriff's office says that except for one girl who walked into the rear of a car because she was gazing at a uniformed patrol boy, the record is perfect.

Harding, St. Mary Wind Up Drills for Home Finales

Prexy-Fremont Ross Clash To Decide League Winner

The Buckeye League crown hangs in the balance in tonight's stadium battle between a powerful Fremont Ross club, perennial loop champions, and Coach Pete Howison's Harding Presidents.

Each squad takes a 4-0 league rating into their final league tilts of the year. Harding is assured of second spot. The contest marks the Presidents' final home appearance of the season.

Ross Unbeaten

The visitors, with no defeats in seven engagements and looking toward its clash with the state champion Massillon eleven next week, go into the game as the favorite. The Giants have rolled by every opponent with considerable ease while rolling up 2,498 yards on 287 running plays, an average of 8.7 yards a carry.

Of Fremont's 44 touchdowns, 24 have come from outside the enemy 30-yard marker. Pacing the speedy Fremont backfielders is 175-pound Halfback Lester Franks, the Giants top scorer. He has touchdown runs of three, 13, 41, 44, 62 and 62 yards to his credit. Ron Whitcomb, his 170-pound running mate at the other halfback post, has gone 54, 65 and 31 yards for scores.

This year's Fremont squad, defending loop titlists, are already 383 yards ahead of the 1951 Ross team offensive mark. The team that year had John Lewis and Jerome Surratt in the backfield. Observers believe this year's Ross team is the best one yet at the school. Coach Mal Mackey's club will be the speediest and best rounded team seen here.

Harding will be outweighed at every position. Fremont's offensive line weighs in at 171 pounds per man and the backfield will average 185 pounds. Its defensive alignment boasts several large linemen.

Rounding out Fremont's backfield will be Ted Houghtaling, 160, at quarterback and Charley Black, 175, at fullback.

Harding will go into the game at full strength. The locals, held to a 7-7 tie by Ashland last week, will be out to end Fremont's long reign as Buckeye League king. The Giants, ranked eighth in the state, won last year's game with the Prexies 26-13.

Parade Planned

Harding fans hope to build up spirit with a parade to the stadium for the championship game with Fremont Ross.

Sponsored by the Harding Boosters Club, the parade is scheduled to get underway at 7 p.m. with the Harding band leading the march.

Following the band will come two decorated convertibles carrying the cheerleading squad, Harding students, a decorated float, a decorated car carrying members and officers of the Boosters Club and club members on foot.

The marchers will form at the courthouse at 6:45 p.m. and march south on Main St. and Delaware Ave. and east on Walnut St. to the stadium. The parade will enter through the stadium's south gate.

Walter Guthery of the Boosters Club yesterday warned all marchers to bring their tickets to avoid confusion at the south gate where the parade will enter the stadium.

Harding Hi-Y Clubs have taken charge of decorations for the parade.

Reese Refuses Chance To Fill Brooklyn Post

By BEN PHLEGAR

BROOKLYN (AP) — The Brooklyn Dodgers hung a "vacancy" sign on the manager's door at Ebbets Field today and claimed they have no one under serious consideration for the job.

Pee Wee Reese, the Dodgers' star shortstop and captain who figured as the No. 1 candidate, made up his mind last night he wasn't interested.

"Maybe I have made a mistake—I will know that in a couple of years," the popular Pee Wee said at his home in Louisville as he declared himself out.

"I think I have done the right thing. Anyway, that's the way it is and I'll never be sorry, no matter how things might turn out."

Ever since they failed to come to terms with Charley Dressen in mid-October, the Dodgers have let it be known—without saying anything officially—that Reese would have a chance to say "yes" or "no" before they went shopping elsewhere.

Last week Buzzy Bavasi, vice president of the club, met with Reese for an hour in Columbus, Ohio, and discussed the situation.

Reese said he wasn't offered the job but he knew Bavasi was trying to find out how he felt about it.

"It was my impression he was not interested in being a player-manager," Bavasi said last night, shortly before Reese made it official.

Reese said Buzzy got the right idea.

"I still think I can play a couple of more years," Reese said.

The deal apparently would have specified that Reese both play and manage since Bavasi said Reese always has been counted upon to be the club's regular shortstop next season.

Bavasi declared that it would be incorrect to say the club had any hot prospects for the job at the moment "despite what you may read or hear. Of course you probably won't believe that."

He added that it would be some time before a manager would be hired, definitely not within the next two weeks.

SHORT SPORTS

By John Short

Tonight's Buckeye League title clash between Fremont and Harding probably will be the last action in that league here.

Doom of the Buckeye was virtually assured earlier this week when the Northern Ohio League voted to accept Tiffin Columbian to fill the vacancy caused by the withdrawal of Crestline from the NOL.

SHORT

Tiffin has been on the verge of withdrawing from the Buckeye for several years but Bowling Green and Fostoria have also indicated they want out. The expected withdrawal of those two would leave the Buckeye League with only Harding, Fremont and Findlay. Announcement of the Fostoria and Bowling Green withdrawals are expected soon.

That leaves the league with the problem of adding some teams or folding completely. The latter act seems most likely. Already talk has been circulated in Fremont and Findlay of entering another league composed of northern Ohio high schools. The proposed loop would include the two Buckeye League schools in addition to Lorain, Elyria and possibly Sandusky.

A wait and see attitude has been adopted by Harding athletic officials. Coach Pete Howison reports he has no idea what action will be taken by the Prexies. However, a lot of opposition probably would be encountered here over plans to enter the proposed circuit. School officials believe protests would be lodged over the traveling distance required should Lorain and Elyria be scheduled by Harding.

Harding officials probably will wait until after the annual Buckeye League meeting before deciding on their course of action. The meeting is scheduled at Fostoria Nov. 23.

POOR HUNTING. Duck hunting success around the Delaware Dam area during the first week of the season was reported far below par by state wildlife officials. A total of 72 hunters were able to bag only seven ducks during the first week.

However, wildlife officials reported the situation was the same throughout Ohio. Bluebird weather and low water conditions were listed as the chief causes of trouble.

Only one section was reported to approach par for first week hunting conditions. That was reported in the Ottawa and Lucas Counties lake areas. The state department reported 73 ducks were bagged by 28 hunters in that section.

Young, Giuliani In Video Scrap

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP)—Paddy Young gets a screen test for a proposed Dec. 9 Cleveland bout with Gil Turner tonight at St. Nicholas Arena when he meets Sammy Giuliani of Stamford, Conn.

Since losing to Bobo Olson June 19 in an American middleweight title bout, Paddy has been on a 4½-month "vacation." Now he starts on the road back, hoping he can escape the fate that awaited George Araujo last Friday. Promoter Larry Atkins of Cleveland wants to match Young with Turner and Rocky Castellani with Ernie Durando on his Christmas fund show.

Young is a 4 to 1 favorite in the 10-round match, scheduled for 10 p.m., EST, with ABC network radio and NBC television coverage. Paddy has been fighting in a much tougher league than Giuliani, when he's not vacationing.

Grid Brownies, Steelers Meet In Aerial Duel

CLEVELAND (AP) — Unless the gridiron is sloppy at Cleveland Stadium Sunday, the air should be filled with forward passes when the Cleveland Browns try to overcome the Pittsburgh Steelers for their seventh straight National Football League victory.

The Steelers have the league's best record in limiting opponents' rushing yardage, although they may be handicapped Sunday by the absence of defensive end Bill McPeak, who has a rib injury.

Each club has used its star passer heavily so far in the campaign. Pittsburgh's Jim Finks has thrown 195—which is 35 more than any other NFL passer. He's completed 93 for 1,044 yards, or an average of 5.35 yards a throw. Otto Graham, who leads the league in passing yardage with 1,385, has completed 84 of 132 for an average of 10½ yards an attempt.

In addition to McPeak, the Steelers are expected to play without halfback Lynn Chandnois, who has averaged 36 yards a return in carrying back eight kickoffs for the league's best performance in this specialty.

The Browns are expected to give hometown fans their first glimpse of defensive end Doug Atkins, the club's 1953 No. 1 choice in the college draft. The six-eight, 250-pound Tennessee rookie, strained a leg early in the second game of the season and has been sidelined since.

Irish Slowed by Injuries For Game Saturday Night

An injury-hampered St. Mary team is making final preparations for Saturday night when it will meet the season's toughest competition, Mansfield Madison.

Coach Ray Robbins reports the Irish have a long list of injuries. At the present time only one looks serious enough to bench a regular. However the total might be enough to slow down the Irish who are attempting to win their sixth game in seven starts after being upset by Carey last week.

Campton Out

Guard Bob Campton is nursing a groin injury, and Robbins doesn't know whether or not he'll be able to see action. Either Dave Kraft or Chuck Mitchell will fill in if Campton isn't ready.

Backs Mike Anderson and Ted Kilbury, Guard Jerry Ballenger and End Don Shoemaker should be ready for Saturday night even though they will be nursing minor injuries.

To eliminate the possibility of more injuries, Robbins has been cutting down on contact scrimmage. Instead the Irish has spent a lot of time in dummy scrimmages, running plays against Madison's five-man line defense.

Madison is reportedly at near full strength for the contest with only one man on the doubtful list. He is Halfback Ron Kearns, Mansfield's top scorer, who may not be recovered from a leg injury which kept him out of last week's Bellville game.

Robbins, who scouted once-defeated Madison twice, reports that he expects Jerry Hammett and Paul Kovats to be the Ram backs who will give him the most trouble.

Hammett, the Madison fullback, is the team's leading rusher, averaging 7.4 yards per carry. He needs only 107 yards to have rushed a mile in his high school career. Kovats is second in rushing averages, 7.2 yards per carry.

Madison uses the short punt as its basic formation but also runs some plays out of the wing-T.

Both squads are hoping to bounce back Saturday night after having undefeated streaks broken last weekend. Madison was knocked off by an undefeated Bellville 13-6, while St. Mary bowed to Carey 13-7.

Prior to last Saturday Mansfield's record included a 7-7 tie with Ashland and wins over Crestline 39-0, Carey 27-6, Orrville 26-0, Loudonville 55-0, and Port Clinton 55-0.

St. Mary's record showed wins over Cardington 27-0, Lima St. Rose 7-0, Mt. Gilead 36-0, Columbus St. Mary 20-0 and Richwood 55-6.

This will be the seventh meeting between the two schools, Madison holding a 5-2 edge in the series which began in 1940. The Irish downed the Rams 6-0 in 1940 and 7-6 in 1951.

Nine of Madison's probable starters are lettermen returning from last year's squad which mowed down the Irish 40-14 last year.

Barring further developments in the injury department, Robbins plans to stick to his regular lineup: Pat O'Connor, 160, and Shoemaker, 168, on the ends; John Kells, 180, and Ed Quinn, 170, at the tackles; J. Ballenger, 145, and Campton, 150, at the guard posts, and Jack Schnitzler, 165, at center.

Regular Backfield

In the backfield it will be Roger Michell, 168, quarterbacking, Larry Ryan, 160, at full; and Anderson, 155, and either John Messenger, 138, or Kilbury, 150, in the halfback slots.

Ram Coach Roger McGee will probably use Ed Arnold, 155, and Larry Ball, 158, as ends, Wayne

Clamor Goes On

Club Owners Study Plans For Expansion of Majors

NEW YORK (AP)—The rising clamor to bring major league baseball to the West Coast has reached a fever pitch and the club owners were wondering today just how they would approach the problem at the minor league meeting at the end of the month and the major league sessions in December.

Until International League President Frank Shaughnessy presented his plan for two 12-team leagues, the moguls were in a dither. They wanted to expand but they didn't know just how to do it.

Shag's plan calls for two leagues of 12 teams each—which naturally would take in at least a couple of West Coast cities—to be divided into Eastern and Western sections. The first four finishers in each section would play off to meet in the World Series.

This, of course, is what most of the minors have been doing since 1932 when Shaughnessy introduced his "Shaughnessy playoffs." It has kept interest alive even when one team ran away with the pennant, because in the playoffs any of the first four clubs could win.

"It would give the majors a sensible program for expansion," said Shaughnessy who is here for a Baseball Rules Committee meeting, "instead of the present uncertain, panicky grabbing for minor league territory. At the same time it would stabilize the minor leagues."

Walter O'Malley, president of the Brooklyn Dodgers already has seen the Shaughnessy plan. He likes it, but he cautions that "it isn't something that is going to be done in a couple of weeks or maybe a couple of years, but eventually something will have to be done and to me the Shaughnessy plan looks sound."

O'Malley acknowledged that "a change is imperative" because of various pressures that have been exerted on the majors, but he does not want a third major league.

"To do that would mean a setting up of a new league which obviously would include numerous weak cities and I doubt whether any of the clubs in the majors would care to move into any new circuit."

When and if the leagues are expanded, four cities seem virtually certain of being included—Los Angeles, San Francisco, Montreal and Toronto.

Panther, Mate Cop Armory Main Bout

The Black Panther and Ricky Waldo belted Paul Orth and Irish McGee in a tag team match headlining the weekly wrestling card at the armory last night.

The winner took the first fall after 15 minutes of slugging when Waldo butted Orth's head into the Panther's. The butting opened a cut above Orth's eye. The second fall lasted 12 minutes and ended when Orth was hit by his partner. He had been in a headlock held by the Panther. He motioned for McGee to help but McGee hit the wrong wrestler.

Scotty Williams whipped Joe Cassius to defend hit title. He won the first fall in 17 minutes with a grapevine hold but Cassius evened the bout after 11 minutes with an airplane spin. The third fall lasted 10 minutes with Williams winning with another grapevine.

The opening bout was won by George Thomas. He pinned Dusty Rohous after 17 minutes.

Both Hayes, Munn Expect High-Scoring Big Ten Game

By FRITZ HOWELL

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A crowd of 82,000 or more, Sunny skies with the temperatures in the 50s Scalpers asking and getting $40 for a pair of tickets between the goal posts. And hopes of the Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl bid riding on the result.

That's the setting for Saturday's Western Conference clash between Michigan State's sparkling Spartans and Ohio State's comeback Buckeyes in the big horseshoe stadium along the Olentangy River.

The crowd, the temperature and the soaring ticket prices are assured The title and Rose Bowl chances hinge on whether Illinois, unbeaten, stays that way in the Western Conference

The Bucks and Spartans go into this one with identical records of 5-1 for the season, and 3-1 in the rugged league. Michigan State's 28-game winning streak was halted abruptly by Purdue, 6-0, the only game the Boilermakers have won, while Ohio was a 41-20 victim of Illinois

The Spartans flew into town last night, and when Coach Biggie Munn learned his team was a seven-point favorite he asked:

"I wonder who figures these things out? You can't favor anyone over this Ohio State team which has fine passing and running and can go for the long ones at any time They've been behind in four games, and they've won 'em all

"I look for a high-scoring game, and we're not taking anything for granted This looks like the toughest sort of contest"

Woody Hayes, boss of the Bucks also said he expected plenty of scoring.

"I wish we could put those seven points they're spotting us on the scoreboard," he said. "That Michigan State defense has allowed only 56 points this year, about half of what we've allowed, so you can see this is a rough one"

Both coaches said their teams were in pretty fair physical shape for the fray, and both indicated the vengeance angle might play a part.

Two years ago Ohio had a 20-10 lead over the Spartans, but Munn's men came up with two last-period touchdowns, one in the final minute, to snatch a 24-20 victory.

Ohio State will have a weight edge on both the line and in the backfield, but Michigan State is granted an edge on speed. Ohio has two outstanding passers in the quarterback slot in Dave Leggett and Johnny Borton, and a hefty scorer in right halfback Bobby Watkins who has 10 touchdowns in six games

The stadium has been sold out for weeks, and chances are the Bucks will set a new attendance record of more than 400,000 for their five home games, with Purdue coming up next week.

Western Union said its facilities in the press box were being stretched to the utmost, and coverage might exceed the 120,000 words which poured out of the stadium after the 18-13 Notre Dame victory over Ohio State in 1935.

Smart Admits Charge, Claims Rule Unknown

NEW YORK (AP)—The state harness racing commsision today was considering the case of Wayne (Curly) Smart, prominent trainer-driver and his assistant charged with stimulating three horses last July and August without proper authorization.

At a hearing yesterday Smart of Delaware, Ohio, harness racing's leading driver in 1952, and the assistant, Carl Larsen of Medina, Ohio, admitted administering a stimulant. They said, however, they didn't know about commission rules forbidding use of a hypodermic needle on a horse without the permission of the steward or presiding judge at a race meeting.

Larsen said he injected Abbassong Aug. 12 just before the rich Hambletonian at Goshen, N. Y. In August and two other horses, H. B Chief and Judge Pick at Roosevelt Raceway, Westbury, N. Y., in July

Smart said: "If the commission will consider our ignorance in this case I'll be sure to read the rules more carefully."

Bucyrus Team Favored To Nip Crestline Crew

BUCYRUS — Two teams with mediocre season records meet here tonight when Bucyrus' Redmen entertain Crestline in a homecoming tilt. It will be the season's league windup for both teams.

Although Bucyrus has lost four straight and has yet to win at home, the Redmen are favored to mark up their third win of the year against winless Crestline. Bucyrus has a 2-5 season record while Crestline has lost seven in a row.

Bucyrus winds up the season next Friday night when Defiance one of the few undefeated teams in northwestern Ohio, comes here.

OWU Program Set To Honor Dr. Rice

More than 200 doctors are expected to return to the Ohio Wesleyan University Campus in Delaware Nov. 14 and 15 to honor Dr. Edward L. Rice, emeritus professor of zoology, who retired from the faculty in 1941.

Included in the two-day program will be a panel discussion on the topic, "If I could do it over, what changes, if any, would I make in preparation for medical school and practice?"

Dr Frederick T. Merchant, Marion physician and a 1933 graduate of OWU, who earned his M. D. at Johns Hopkins in 1937, will be one of the five panelists.

Dr. Rice has seen more than 600 of his former students become doctors during the 45 years that he served on the OWU faculty. To honor him for his outstanding contribution, the college is sponsoring an Edward L. Rice reunion. Plans for the two-day tribute have been laid by a former student and colleague of Dr Rice, Dr. Allen C Gonger, emeritus professor of zoology and registrar who went into retirement himself last June.

3 Plead Innocent On Ohio Probers' Contempt Charges

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Harry McGill of Dayton and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hupman of Clarksville pleaded innocent yesterday to charges of contempt of the Ohio Un-American Activities Commission.

They and four others who go on trial here beginning Nov. 16 refused to answer commission questions on grounds the answers might tend to incriminate them.

The others are Vasel Thamel of Dayton and Mr. and Mrs. George D. Pappas and Marston A. Hamlin, all of Columbus. The Columbus defendants all are former Ohio State University employes.

Hupman also goes on trial Jan. 5 in Cincinnati on charges he lied when, as a union official at the Dayton Frigidaire Corp. plant, he filled out an affidavit saying he never had been a Communist.

Second Boy Scout Troop Planned at Mt. Gilead

Special to The Star

MT. GILEAD — At the request of the Morrow district, Harding Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America a second troop is being organized in Mt. Gilead. The sponsoring agency will be the Men's Club of the Presbyterian Church

All boys between the ages of 11 and 14 years who are interested in being charter members of the troop are invited to meet in the Presbyterian Church Fellowship Hall on Thursday, Nov. 12, at 7:30 p.m. They are asked to bring their parents with them as they are an important part of the Scout program. The meeting will be conducted by LeRoy Bader, district chairman of the organization and extension committee.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (AP)—A spirited rally in the railroads today pointed the entire stock market higher.

The railroads showed gains going to between 1 and 2 points at the outside. The rest of the market was fractionally higher. There were a few soft spots.

Stepping ahead with the railroads were the steels, rubbers, aircrafts, and most oils, motors, and utilities. On the lower side of the ledger were the coppers and many chemicals.

Among higher stocks were New York Central, Southern Railway, Northern Pacific, Atlantic Coast Line, Bethlehem Steel, Standard Oil (NJ), Goodyear, American Cyanamid, and Boeing.

New Labor Group Okays Constitution

Discussion and adoption of a general constitution was the main business transacted at a meeting of a new organizaton, Labor United, Tuesday night in the Labor Union Hall.

The organization, composed of one delegate and one alternate from organized labor locals in this area, has as its objective the bringing before the various groups civic and community problems and projects and combine into one effort matters which have no basic connection with business of the individual locals.

"Work, Cooperation and Progress" was adopted as a slogan. Business included the addition of vice president to the staff of officers with the election of Charles Curren. Other officers are R. G. Biglow, president, who presided for the meeting; Herman Rech, treasurer; E. J. Camp, secretary, and Lyle Prontz, publicity director. The officers, with Mrs. Margaret Beverly and Mrs. Dorothy Dodds, make up the executive board. The next meeting will be Dec. 1.

CHURCH CIRCLE MEETS

Hostess for a meeting of Wesley Methodist Circle 1 on Tuesday at the F. J. Beckley home on W. Columbia St. was Mrs. Charles Zuspan. Devotions were by Mrs. Verna Rice, and Mrs. Clyde Coile read an article on "Religion in American Life." A playlet, "Echoe of Jesus' Ministry" was presented by Mrs. Rice, Mrs. Charles Williams, Mrs. Clayton Baughman, and Mrs. Lloyd Mosher.

Lawyers Hear Mitchell

Edwin L. Mitchell, Marion attorney, spoke on the subject of workmen's compensation when members of the Marion County Bar Association attended a luncheon meeting Thursday at Hotel Harding, Riley Hall served as toastmaster.

Next luncheon meeting of the group will be Dec. 3, when Louis B. Conkle will discuss "Service of Summons on Incompetents and Minors."

HAS YOUR CHILD MUSIC ABILITY?
Free Children's Piano Aptitude Test
Given Privately,
Saturday from 10 to 12 a.m.
Children enjoy it and each will be given a copy of the amazing new PLAY-BY-COLOR piano book. No charge nor obligation
Psychologists have found that the child who can study music and enjoy it tends to become a better all-around student. It helps develop self-control, rhythm or "timing" assurance, concentration and other valuable habits.

STEVE CANYON By Milton Caniff

HILL BANDITS! DUCK, HOLLY—I'LL HIT THE LIGHTS!
NO! NO! MR. CANYON —THEY HAVE MY MOTHER IN THE HALL!
MOTHER, DEAR, ARE YOU ALL RIGHT?
YES, HOLLY, I RECKON SO!.. THESE PEOPLE SHOOK ME AND SAID TO COME ALONG!
ONLY THESE THREE EUROPEANS ON TRAIN TO HOLD FOR RANSOM! MASTA BE CRAZY MAD!
PUT EUROPEANS INTO BOAT!
WH-WHAT HAPPENS NOW, MR. CANYON?
THE FIRST THING IS THAT THE RANSOM PRICE WILL GO UP WHEN THEY FIND OUT WE'RE OLD NASTY AMERICANS INSTEAD OF EUROPEANS!
